A high-rise building under construction in Bangkok collapsed after a 7.7 magnitude earthquake rocked Thailand and neighboring Myanmar midday on Friday, police said, and possible casualties are not yet known.

To all those in Bangkok area I hope you are safe and ok.

Shit, my dad is in Vietnam right now, I tried to call him but he didn't reply, he doesn't have internet access out of his hotel tho

I took a look at different news and it seems that they felt a 4-5 magnitude earthquake there compared to Thailand, I don't think it's a lot and he should be safe.

It seems that there are no major damages or victims so far even in Thailand, great to hear that

That's devastating news. I hope everyone in the area is safe and that rescue efforts are swiftly underway. Earthquakes like this can have a tremendous impact, and my thoughts are with those affected. Hopefully, more details will emerge soon, and authorities can provide the necessary support to those in need.
