Thread: RANT - Lost 50k Bytes flipping - Broke again

The Joker - April 1, 2025, 6:26 am

I won 50,000 Bytes in a contest posted by @6@ HERE

Chrome offered to buy me UBER upgrade in exchange for the 50k Bytes - I should've accepted.

But I didn't - Why? - Because I'm dumb. That's why.

I chose to flip in convo instead and lost it all.

Now Stanley is richer by 50k Bytes.

esimbuy.org had promised to send 100k Bytes as soon as he can.

Waiting for him to throw some my way - Definitely not going to flip this time. Lol.

Hope you all are doing fine folks!

Please read the 3rd line of OP again. ?

What else would u have done with them?

Idk how much Ub3r is but 50k seems like a lot for it.

I probably would have sold about 30k, give away 5-10k and flip the rest.

Uber is $40 for a year.

I didn't lose anything as a matter of fact.

I only own what I earn and I didn't earn the 50k. So no worries.

Yeah, 50k bytes it worth quite a bit more than $40.

I had that same mentality when I was in the process of losing 3k on memecoins. I made it all on 2-5x ROI sales so I was like whatever it's either get rich or go broke trying. Now, I feel like an idiot, especially because I didn't even use it for any of my good coin ideas.

Anyway, I'm not giving up, I'll have some successful projects soon, just need some free time and motivation to lock in.

Hopefully esim sends you those bytes, bros really out here buying friends at this point ?

I've lost quite some money in the past. Got scammed, traded forex with 2000x leverage and on some stupid betting apps.

But, I'm content with my life. Sometimes you feel sad about the lost wealth.

But, it was my decision to lose it. Lol.

esimbuy.org is a man of his word. So, I'm gonna be rich again. (Just kidding ?)

That's gambling, I always lose more than I win. Should of sold my bytes and not played blackjack is my story.

Lost 24k before and decided not to flip again

Eran - April 1, 2025, 2:08 pm

Don't feel so bad mate. I won 250k as well from Mooooookie's contest last year. Lost almost everything in flips and blackjack cause I was an idiot who deserved it. I only sold a little amount and I was also able to achieve the Sportsbook award.

Tyr - April 1, 2025, 2:19 pm

Come back when you've lost 700k within 2 minutes please tyvm.

It's only a number man. It's a fun number too. Don't let it weigh on you.

Pr0m3th3us - April 1, 2025, 2:26 pm last week i started with 1k and went to 33k in 2is hours....then got greedy and lost it. Demon should i stoped me so i could cash out, i blame him.

Thank you for your kind condolences; your support means a great deal to me during this difficult time.

Haha

Yeah it's a terrible deal but the offer was there lmao. He decided to gamble and lose it. Poor bloke could be Uber right now.

To be honest, had I have got his bytes I also would have rinsed it.
