Thread: APRIL FOOLS prank by Omni - Or is it?

The Joker - April 1, 2025, 8:55 am

The BOSS MAN Omniscient recently posted a thread HERE stating that he had sold hackforums.net domain to Ross Ulbricht. (The man in jail for running silk road)

I believe it is just a prank for April fool's day.

Why do I think so?

Because,

Omni would never ever sell this domain. He himself had said this numerous times and we all know how much he loves his work and is proud about it.

Even if he's decided to sell it, he would never ever associate with someone with a record like Ross Ulbricht. Omni is clean or atleast I believe him to be.

Most importantly, the date of announcement is suspicious. Lol.

Happy April fools day to all fools here. That includes me. ?

Nostre - April 1, 2025, 9:15 am

Happy April Fools to you too, but this is actually true. The sale was planned for after the first quarter, and it just happened to land on April Fools' Day.

I didn't expect it to happen in the first week. Hopefully, Omni starts an open thread with more details.

Mooooookie - April 1, 2025, 9:21 am

He got me with this one.

I fell for it for a good 5 - 10 mins.. I can't even lie.

Me either. This was definitely unexpected! Who else knows what Omniscient may have up his sleeve ?

True or not true I personally do not really care.

But changing the logo and editing the css files for MyBB is very easy, takes like 3 minutes.

DramaKing - April 1, 2025, 9:52 am

Omni has previously sold HF. <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=161148>

I remember those, I knew right away what all this was first glance. I was like oh ya, this April fools day.

Helltoy - April 1, 2025, 11:48 am

They should use HF contract for better security.

Zher0 - April 1, 2025, 11:50 am

Honestly, i'd be happy if the news was true. There is no place for hacking on the clearnet anymore imo.

Oh dang that sucks that he sold HF. I knew this day was to come. Kept telling people the website went down hill. There's not really much HQ posting going on.. just trolling and copy and pasting stuff.

Oh well..?

Lavish Living - April 1, 2025, 12:53 pm

Coulda sold it better if it actually rerouted to moneyforums.net since I know he does own that domain too

James Burnham - April 1, 2025, 1:04 pm

It's true, I have some connections in the white house and they confirmed it.

INCREDIBLE - April 1, 2025, 1:48 pm

It's a prank.

Omni owns other forums, too, but more than 90% of his attention is on HF management.

Omni never fails to give us mini heart attacks on April fools. i fucking hate it intuition - April 2, 2025, 3:10 am

Oh wow, he got me. Believed in this for a day, while being an OG user of this platform (lost my old acc)

Sholi - April 2, 2025, 4:21 am

Nobody is gonna believe this until the DNS actually changes.

DramaKing - April 2, 2025, 4:21 am

Omni does observe special occasions.

Jamika - April 2, 2025, 6:11 am

It was a good idea tbh to change forum name , nice one ngl

The Joker - April 2, 2025, 10:23 am

Omniscient agreed that this was indeed an April fools prank to fool us HERE.

But did he really fool us? Nah.

But it was thoughtful of him to put all these efforts to pull an elaborate prank.

There was a moment when I thought that this might be true. Lol.

May the forum prevail as it has done all these years!

Sir, Nostre, from my studies and concepts surrounding time value of money; I can deduce that April is not part of the first quarter (Q1) in the standard accounting cycle. April falls within the second quarter (Q2), which includes April, May, and June. What kind of shady business are you up to here?

Forgive me. As a forensic accountant, I can no longer read anything without my eyes beginning to bleed and blur my vision.

Nonetheless, I would like to see the classified balance sheet either way. SOX compliance and internal controls are no joke!

I mentioned that and said I kind of regretted that I voted for it to stay Hack Forums over Money Forums about a week before, so I may have inspired the prank. But because it's always April 2nd for me by the time the pranks happen I'm more likely to fall for it. One year I thought he'd rep fucked me for making a joke in a bad taste joke thread when the joke was about 9/11 because he sent a message to everyone that said "You so deserve this" when he rep fucked everyone. And I thought he was offended by the 9/11 joke and I considered sending him a message saying "But it was a bad taste joke thread." And then I was glad I never sent him that DM. haha.

VoizagBOT - April 11, 2025, 8:17 pm

It was really surprising for me or anyone who see omni really sold something but thank god , that was fun for real . ?
