Thread: I'm leaving

DramaKing - April 1, 2025, 9:21 am

Since I received the Bronze Tutorial and Quickly Loved awards, I've decided that it's been a good run is now time for me to move on. Had some good times on this site, but sadly it just doesn't feel like HackForums.

I wish you all the best.

Biggs - April 1, 2025, 9:22 am

Im keen on this idea to be honest, but I think I'll be staying.

Good luck on your adventures!

Tyr - April 1, 2025, 9:22 am

I completely feel your sympathy brother. RIP to another real one.

Is it that hard to get a job? I really didn't think about it? How much daily running / jogging is needed to be a snitch? I am really out of shape.

Bro... I've been on this forum for a couple of weeks, and now the name and profile picture have changed. I found out that some internet legend bought it, and turns out the person I followed the most on here is leaving. I don't get any of this. :0

I was trying to continue with the joke of the day, what idiot would believe in MoneyForums, they should have changed it to "tutorial on how to hack my girlfriend's Instagram" It seems that's the only reason people come here.

Moneyforum stands, a bastion of legit-
A digital shrine where the cool even admits,
With neon flair in a cybernetic pit,
Where logic and cash dance in a hit-or-miss skit.

A monkey, bless its clueless, furry soul,
Falls headlong for the glitter, out of control-
A foolish puppet in this wild, wired role,
Stumbling through schemes that swallow whole.

Oh, you magnificent fucker of digital fame,
Moneyforum, you're a paradox wrapped in a name.
In the circus of scams, you're the absurd flame,
Leaving monkey minds gasping at your glorious game.

Hmm, it seems you wrote this on April 1st, but I see you are active. Honestly, in the short time I've been on this forum, you seem like a good member, always helping. If that's the case, it's a shame.

You might just better off your life. Sometimes finding something new will never happen if you keep doing the same thing all the time.

I'm here to tell you they don't need HF logs to take someone down lol.

Thats old ideologies. They get much more fruitful logs direct from google and doesn't cost them a conversation with Omni and an annoying subpoena.

Of course they don't, my post was sarcasm as I had a interaction with DramaKing earlier so context is missing.

It's a below the belt shot to DramaKing, I'm tired him sharing bullshit advice to new members and luring them into shady deals.

He should just clean up his room and breath new life into his brain, perhaps applying as a coffee boy or office cleaner at the feds will do.

See, if he actually had something to do with cybersec in any relevant way I'd somewhat understand despite all his LQ posts and larping but come to find out he doesn't and he becomes the only member i despise every time I come across his outputs.
