8/8/2026: METHOD IS STILL 100% WORKING. OFFERING 50% OFF TO NEXT 3 BUYERS TO GET THIS ACTIVE AGAIN

VOUCH COPIES AVAILABLE: 0/2

- If you are someone that's willing to do what it takes to make some real money.. this is the method for you. I have been doing this for just a few months now and have netted over $34,000 to date. This method requires ZERO investment, VERY MINIMAL time, and NO SPECIAL SKILL AT ALL.

- This method is a lucrative way of making some REAL money FAST. This is on the unethical side, where there are some grey areas but this is not illegal, this does not require any illegal moves etc. This is a method that if you're willing to be slightly on the unethical side you are GOING to make THOUSANDS .. potentially every day.

- Not only will this method make you upwards of $50,000 EASILY in very little time... but this method also includes a bonus method that you can also turn this into a passive service where you can make anywhere from $150-$500 per client. Again.. with only 10-15 minutes of work.

I received a vouch copy of this method and here are my thoughts:

The document itself is simple and gets straight to the point (this is my style, I don't need to read a novel)

The method as far as my understanding goes is perfectly legal and non black-hat, it may border slightly into the grey area of ethics. However, even this I would debate and in terms of my own personal moral compass I wouldn't feel any type of way about executing this method

This method could be used both for the user themselves but could also be very easily provided as a profitable service too (something I may even look into myself) and doesn't seem like something that can be saturated in the traditional sense like most methods

For the price being charged, I think this product provides more than enough. The information inside was new to me and the fact that it can be used for relatively quick personal gain + the ability to be ran as a service if desired makes it more than worth it in my opinion

(May 13, 2025 01:34 PM)Mooooookie Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Review of Product:

I purchased this product from OP, but unfortunately due to my location.. wasn't able to take advantage of it. Before purchasing it, me and the Seller came to the agreement that if I wasn't able to earn my money back + profit, that he would return my money.. and I can vouch for the OP as stand up guy, as he did just that. After I provided proof to the OP that I wouldn't be able to take advantage of the method due to my location, he checked his resources and confirmed that indeed my location was one that wasn't supported by the method, and he indeed returned my money. I didn't have to beg, or ask multiple times.. he just sent my money back as agreed. So with that alone, he has my vouch and respect. He's not a slimeball Seller, lying and conning to get money put in his pocket, and then disappearing once he has the money. So shout out to him for that.

In regards to the method, it's definitely different. While I knew about the main method itself, there is an additional part of the method that I wasn't aware of, which made the method unique.. because if I was to have done this on my own, without reading the guide, and let's say it would of went thru.. I wouldn't of known about 2nd part of the method, that makes the method worth it. While yes, the method requires your personal information.. the OP knows about something, that most people don't know about.. that makes the method unique, and makes it so that regardless of the fact you're using your personal information.. that you won't get screwed over in the long run. It's a loophole in the method, that makes it so that the money earned is all profit minus the cost of the method. So if you're able to get the $2500-$10,000 ... that money is all yours, and not something that you have to worry about messing up your credit. So that aspect of it is pretty cool. I'm actually disappointed that I wasn't able to take advantage of it.. because I would of if it was possible.

So is the product worth $150? Yes, if you're in a location that is accepted for the method.. then you'll easily make back your $150, while making anywhere between $2500-$10k on your first round. And if you're lucky, you'll be able to do a couple more rounds with additional ones. So yeah, I would say it is worth it if you're in the right location.

It's not really saturable, and I'd rather be able to help other people. I also don't have any real credible methods out, but this one is gold. So once traction picks up I will probably price it differently.

Is it possible to earn money outside the US? Or is it required?

You could theoretically use the bonus method outside of the US and provide it to US based members. But to do the main method and have that type of access to money, you'd need to be US Based.

All PMs answered, contracts sent out, price has been upped.

Envy - April 11, 2025, 11:24 pm

? Vouch for SpiritualDose

I've been given a copy of: THE SHAKEDOWN - THE LAST METHOD YOU'LL EVER BUY

It's clear at the time of reading that it was quickly put together, which may change at a later date - but the information is there and it's not a half bad method nonetheless. However, it's not exactly what I'd consider "unsaturable" and I'll shortly touch base on why. It should be noted that the method falls under a grey area and requires an assertive communication strategy - which carries potential risk if not executed properly or pushed beyond its limits.

As stated in the thread, the method does require some use of your personal information and may also involve what some would consider "questionable" practices. That said, it has proven to be rewarding depending on how far you're willing to push your ethics - at which point it technically does become in fact saturated. Anyone considering purchasing the method should take into account the financial and legal boundaries in their area. All I can really add is that debt never truly goes away.

I'm optimistic that SpiritualDose will continue to refine the information in the document and structure it to be more accessible and informative for readers who may not be familiar with predatory lenders. Including some real-life experience or examples of how and where the method can best be applied would help better prepare readers for situations that may arise when actively using the approach. Otherwise, I wish them the best with their sales and consider the method's contents worth the asking price - though I would advise some improvements to the information.

You don't need a single dollar to invest in the actual process of the method itself.

You'd be looking at maybe 20-30 minutes of work for each time you do the method and can expect to make anywhere from $2,000 to $10,000.

This I would say is grey hat, nothing illegal but ethically it's questionable.

U812 - May 7, 2025, 6:51 pm

I just bought this method. Will post updates soon about earnings.

update: The method is not sustainable long-term and can get you into some mess. I wouldn't consider this method to be Blackhat but still it's a lot of headache.

You can make some money with this but if you are looking for something long-term without the headache then don't buy this.

SIM-4791795 - May 8, 2025, 9:41 am

Not blackhat, but borderline, was unable to perform the method because my "financial record" is too clean. Plus offering this as a service has to be to desperate clients and clients that don't care about their "financial record".

YES, you can make money. But this is tied too much to your personal and there is no guarantee on making this thing financial burden go away.

Rsynced - May 8, 2025, 11:07 am

So it puts you in debt? I mean you can just rack up credit card debt in the US and file chapter 7 or chapter 13 bankruptcy and come out ahead if you have nothing to lose and already in poverty.

No. What goes on back end is in-enforceable by the United States and does not have legal or financial implications whatsoever.
