Welcome back to the forums

Bastille - April 16, 2025, 12:24 am

I don't do this often because it feels awkward and I don't really like it, but yeah haha, a couple of failed thread attempts, like everyone else who was checking the forum for their marks at the beginning, I guess.

Welcome back, man! Crazy to see so many old members coming back to HF recently.

Oh man, the digital time capsule of our past selves can be brutal! Been there, scrolling through old forum posts like, "Who was that person?!" sending the love right back!
