Thread: Looking for ways to make money as a college student

Shawk - April 16, 2025, 9:24 am

I'm looking for ways to make good money as a college student where its low hours and can fund my weekly budget. i spend around 100-200 dollars a week. any easy method would be helpful

Low hours and high pay don't really come at ease. Whilst 200 dollars might be budget for you it's a lot for someone else. Might I suggest a part time job if you don't have one? You need to make money to make more money.

Also could try some online sites that allow you to complete tasks such as game testing, writing ect.

I've made a lot of money on Facebook, getting cheap or free items and flipping them. Slowed down a lot but it's still there. I make a few hundred a month doing it on the side

Check out the Money Making Guides on HF (this site).

Good luck!
