Thread: [\[Suggestion\] Easter Egg award?](#)

jcole - April 19, 2025, 12:00 pm

4/20 is just around the corner and there is usually a sale for the Legalize It and other marijuana awards. I know Hackuman is not a thing anymore, but it would be cool to have an award like the Independence Egg, but for Easter.

There are also other things that symbolize Easter too. An Easter basket or bunny ears seem like something that would look good for the award size.

What are other's thoughts?

Hear me out....What if it's a deviled egg, specifically?

Not really a big fan of the taste of deviled eggs.

Would really like to see an Easter award released. I like those eggs!

Given HF already has a few food awards, I think a carrot for Easter would be cool.

A carrot would be unique, and I would certainly buy it and add it to my list.

This has probably been suggested every year for 18 years don't think he will add it as it's too easy to get. The only way I see this being added is like a random egg you can get on easter only like the little pet eggs you can get hackuman or whatever they are called.

A posting event for the entire month of April would be cool.

I take it you've been away for a bit.

Hackuman is no longer a thing, closed a while ago.

As for the award, we've had numerous other holiday awards like the Xmas ornaments, Halloween pumpkins, etc.. Not to mention the 420 pot leaf awards we have which are bought basically the same way as what jcole is suggesting; a simple donation award for Easter.

Post goal would be cool, but it's a little late in the month to start that. I suppose he still could though.

There unfortunately just wasn't enough activity to warrant keeping it updated, coming up with ideas, continuing development, etc., so it was scrapped.

I too would like to see a new purchasable award this Easter/420

I sadly missed out on the shamrocks. Can't remember why, might've been inactive but I do remember when they were obtainable. Almost bought the green one during the Awards Market, but decided I didn't want any purchased awards that someone else earned on my profile.

The Hacker Bunny one would be perfect!

As soon as I saw it I thought of a Bash Bunny lol. Maybe if that's the one chosen, the award name could reflect that of a Bash Bunny. Or, alternatively, maybe name it Bytes Bunny

Actually yeah, Bytes Bunny works perfectly if you ask me.

Also I love the carrot 8bit design, came out great. The Bytes Bunny is still better though.

Gold 420 leaf looks sick. How do we get it?

It doesn't exist. There is the original Legalize It award, and then other variations of marijuana leaf colors. Usually it is released for purchase on this day, but not sure what Omni's plan is.
