Thread: [\[Suggestion\] 2025 4/20 Award.](#)

Tor - April 20, 2025, 6:44 am

Because this year is a special year where easter is on same day as 4/20 my suggestion is to have a special 4/20 award special edition.

I even made a concept that looks awesome from my pov.

I like this idea because 'Easter Sunday falls on April 20 in the year 2087. This means the next time Easter will coincide with April 20 is 62 years from now.'

Definitely a special day today. Omniscient

Really cool idea. Would support people from both ends of the perspective, Kill 2 birds with one stone!

Damn, this one is really cool, not sure about the association of a cross and a weed leaf tho lol ... but still really cool !

Could grab one or two if it's for sale, and if they are not too expensive for me

I think most of you guys have enough awards, lets calm down. ?

Omniscient - April 20, 2025, 9:18 am

Awards are 24x24 so when you provide an image, make sure it's that size.

Are you sure you like that image once resized?

There ya go. It's the Holy Leaf award.

Regulus - April 20, 2025, 10:12 am

I suggested a golden leaf this year, due to the double increase of gold as well.
So this is what I'd imagine it to look, great one.

Holy Leaf is sick as well!

Holy Leaf award, nice. ?
Thanks.

Nice award. Whilst I don't 4/20 I do think that it's a strange collaboration between Easter and the calendar, sure we may aswell acknowledge it.

You have to normally refresh your cache manually especially if you're mobile.
