Thread: Money-Makers Unite: What's Actually Working for You Right Now?

Calculator - May 2, 2025, 11:53 am

I want to hear from you—what's bringing in real results right now? Whether it's a strategy, a tool, or a random idea that's paying off, let's share what's actually working. No fluff, just the real stuff.

Yeah but only if you have a job away from customers will it be tolerable.

Anything where you're interacting with customers is a no-go. Way too many variables, bad situations, etc. I'm not trying to deal with the older generations yelling at me over $4 grapes.

I'll take box breakdowns thank you.

Honestly, getting a job at walmart is hard. They won't hire unless you are some sort of ethnic or disabled.
