CrankCo – The Return of Old School Greatness!

Hey Conquerors – the wait is OVER!

Do you remember the thrill of fighting tooth and nail for that last CP drop? The glory of taking down a boss with your guild by your side? The satisfaction of building your gear through grind, not your wallet?

Whether you're a PvP beast, a hunter, a merchant, or just here for the vibes, you'll find your place here.

Our community is friendly, active, and passionate. With daily events, guild wars, and plenty of laughs in chat, you'll never feel like you're grinding alone.

We also believe in active development. Our devs are real players who love the game and take feedback seriously. Expect regular updates, cool content, and improvements based on your ideas.

Your Effort Matters

Unlike pay-to-win servers where your wallet does the talking, CrankCo rewards those who put in the work.

- Farm CPs and items by grinding
- Sell gear or services in the Offline Market
- Join events for rare items and huge rewards
- Climb the ranks through real competition

This is a No Reset Server. Your progress stays. Your grind is respected.

We do Donation Ranking Resets Every 3 Months—resetting rankings only, not your characters—so the playing field stays fair and competitive.

PVP or PVE? Why Not Both?

CrankCo is designed for all kinds of players:

Hardcore PvPers – Daily PvP events, guild wars, rankings, and chaos.

Boss Hunters – 12 Bosses per hour and Team Boss Events give endless loot opportunities.

Casual Players – Auto hunt, fishing, and relaxing side quests.

Traders – Thriving market with CPs, DBs, +1s, and gold drops.

Whether you're competitive or casual, there's something for you every day.
