Congrats again on the invite to Fallen as well as for getting Ub3r!

For my entry I want to generally just give a shoutout to all of those that I've interacted with on here and had positive experiences with. Those people and experiences are naturally a big part of what make me and no doubt others want to continue being a part of this community, spreading that same feeling to others, giving back, helping grow the community, etc.

Thanks for hosting this mate.

One member who influenced me positively on HF was Vitani . Have to say "was" because he hasn't been around in a while now. I used to bug Vitani almost every day about site rules, bitch about people breaking them and his guidance and patience helped shape my persona on HF.
