Thread: What brought you to HackForums?

Badge - May 13, 2025, 1:08 pm

What brought you to this site, if you're old or especially new?

Personally for me it was the introduction to hacking/hacking tools and that got me down a rabbit hole of how things work and opened the door to coding, alongside I was interested in graphic design.

plus; If you're old around here what makes you stay?

Dogroutine414 - May 13, 2025, 1:08 pm

Needed help with some services Lol

Dystortion - May 13, 2025, 1:13 pm

flyingduck brought me here, never heard of this site nor was I ever anywhere on the internet much. I am thankful for him showing me the ropes and since then I've stuck around because of the awesome community and people that are here.

crazy evolution.....i was looking for someone to give my reddit account to before I decided to off myself so it wouldn't go to waste, then I met and talked to members in chat daily trying to learn, then it turned into a small beginning of online friendships/feuds that made me stick around to contribute to make this experience better!

Its played a role in saving my life in one of my darkest times. While ill admite that I still consider it till this day, (never thought id admit this on HF) I try to not focus on all the debt I'm in and not having enough money. for food, hospital bills etc and focus on the great feeling of community I get from this site.

I don't have many skills to offer but the least I could do is offer my time since mine could have expired in march....

When I was in middleschool I loved jailbreaking my iPod Touch, and was just into doing unique cool stuff with technology. Also wanted to get other people to mine for me ;) but AV always got in the way of that. I think I made about $7 haha!

First Post-

I'm here to learn and seek knowledge.

StinkButt420 - May 13, 2025, 1:56 pm

I had an account or two back in the day, like 2019 or something, I wasn't old enough to be on here. And I forget the name, but I couldn't find a reliable copy of Cain and Abel so I came here asking, and how to use it. I think I was trying to copy those guys who made the IP pulling videos on YouTube back in the day, but I never figured it out.

Deany - May 13, 2025, 2:16 pm

Friend told me about the site

SIM-5600039 - May 13, 2025, 4:18 pm

I want to learn about new technology, computer topics, and meet people.

Nice man, glad to have you here! I could be wrong but I'm sure Dorrance showed me HF. I took a few hiatuses but I kept coming back I think just to see how the community has grown or what people were still round and what they've been up too

Crystal Lord - May 14, 2025, 8:53 am

I cannot remember how i went here exactly i needed to inform myself about something so i became a member and im really glad cause of that, HF is the best hacking forum in my personal opinion and we are all here gaining knowledge, experiance and having fun on the HF chat.

?inimalist - May 14, 2025, 12:59 pm

Many many years ago, about money exchange and graphic design services.

?ystem - May 14, 2025, 1:34 pm

What brought me here was Google, and I was absolutely fascinated with learning anything and everything blackhat related, and what keeps me here is the community and the potential to pick up where I left off a few years ago.

diablospartan - May 15, 2025, 8:22 am

From what i remember i search on google for ways to make money ,then a thread from this forum appear .So now i am here

Dennis - May 15, 2025, 11:49 am

Damn lol. I just looked at my profile and realized I have been here for 15 years. So I was gonna post that I probably joined for some skiddy bullshit like "hot to hack x" as I was a kid... But 15 years ago I was 20 lmao

Damn, time runs.

Anyway, I don't remember why.

ogre - May 15, 2025, 12:09 pm

Need to buy some xbox tags. Seems the right place well glad to see you around still!

All those years ago...it would have had to have been DDOS/Stressers. Like alot of new users upon registration I got very much into RAT's as well. So much has changed in a decade.

Moookie - May 15, 2025, 4:00 pm

I stumbled upon HF one day when I was searching for something on Google. The result was linked to a Hack Forums thread, but in order for me to read said thread.. I had to become a member, so I indeed joined that day. That day a Moookie was born, and here I am.

dm175 - May 16, 2025, 11:54 am

Stumbled upon HF from contacts. I was looking for random software. Very glad I did now.

XtremeDiscount - May 16, 2025, 6:11 pm

This sounds like entrapment! Mind your business!
