This is a forum for real humans to interact. Please consider respecting that and putting real thought and effort into your posts. Spamming nonsense such as repeated characters isn't going to get you very far. Take some time to read the welcome materials you have seemingly skipped over. After that, then consider doing a proper introduction.

Please improve your post quality, with the first post you're supposed to introduce yourself.

Take a look at the Help Docs.

Posting Etiquette

Threads, posts, and characters in threads and posts that are non-contributive, are non-supportive, and are generally incoherent fall under this. This includes but is not limited to the following variations and instances: Avoiding character requirements in a post (currently minimum of 25) by adding empty characters, special characters that do not appear when posted, fillers, useless text (e.g. "25 char", "bump", "msg2short" or "tooshort") or a ridiculous amount of smileys to bypass the limit;

Explicitly repeating what another user said;

Posting of memes as an answer to the topic;

The intentional use of broken English (e.g. Dolan Speak);

Trolling; and

Quoting posts without adding to them or adding something but your reply's character count is not above 25 characters (quoted content doesn't count).
