Thread: Upcoming Airdrops to Farm

Avalanche - June 5, 2025, 5:07 am

Is anyone here into airdrop farming?

I've been actively farming for the $IKA airdrop on SUI and completed all the pre-mainnet tasks, they're closed now though. Currently, I'm focusing on Momentum Finance, one of the fastest-growing DEXs on SUI right now.

Curious if anyone else here is farming any promising opportunities? Always looking to exchange insights and discover new protocols early.

I think I only did one of these a long time ago. I made like $100 bucks or so reselling / dumping.

I do remember BTC faucets, only if I would of saved the drips....

Imo airdrops are heavily underrated.

You just have to be able to distinguish between protocols that want to farm users for a long period of time and the protocols that want to genuinely reward their users.

I've made around $20k from airdrops in the past year with minimal investment.

I'm farming Lighter exchange. Won't be as big as Hyperliquid but it has potential. DM me if u need a invite code. You can short on Lighter and long the same coin on Hyperliquid to gather volume, but seems like they reward positive PnL instead of volume for points.

I'm interested to learning airdrops on Dex.

Can you guide me where to start this?

Pumpfun is rumored to airdrop on their token launch soon, other than that I know Hyperliquid is also rumored to reward HyperEVM users

Yeah, man. I've been full-team farming airdrops for the last year.
I spent almost all my day, every day, farming drops.

I have recently decreased the amount I'm farming, but I would say my list is still at around 50 airdrops. Although, of course, some of these get a lot more attention than others.

It really depends on what type of drops you're looking for. I have not yet entered the SUI ecosystem yet, so I don't have anything over there.

I have been intending to start farming in SUI for a while, as I know there are some decent drops over there.
