I've participated in a lot of BOGO scratchcard sales. What are your stats for scratchers on site? You can check here at this link: <https://hackforums.net/scratchcard.php?action=stats>

You win some and lose most.

Not bad. I lost my ass today. Not on scratchers, but on flip. Lost like 450k bytes ?

Damn! A 450k Flip would of certainly been nice if you would of pulled it off though.

I know the feeling of chasing the bag.. and losing, my biggest disappointment gambling on site was this one:

The part that made that whole situation worse, they played a total of 4 games back to back.. I bet the same for all 4x games, they won 3 out of the 4 games.. they just happened to lose the one time I bet 1m bytes. Talk about a let down. But it seems no matter how many times I tell myself I'm done gambling.. I go right back to it in a week or 2.

Looks like you came up pretty good with the Awards though, so that's always a plus. Gained an extra 4 rows, right? How many scratchers did you end buying in total, and how many bytes did you end up winning in total if you don't mind me asking?

That is CRAZY Mook, I am flipping my table over if I lose like $5-$10.

1 Million bytes though, that's a whole new level, I'd just end it (joke obviously because I'd never have that sort of money anyways)

You know the basic rule of gambling, it's a tough one but: Never ever gamble more than you can afford to lose.

Correct!

But to be honest, even with this loss, I was OK in the end.. as I still had another 600k bytes left. That's the only reason I made such a reckless bet. And sure learned a lesson from it. Not to mention, I won those 1m bytes in the first place.. I didn't pay for them. I bet 600k on some game, and won. So it put me a good position, and I guess made me over confident.. and got put right back into my place.

So this is a way to earn bytes?

Yes this is a way to earn bytes. The more money you spend the better chance you have at hitting a HUGE payout. I remember a fairly new user won one million bytes off a scratchcard.

bratzpurse - June 8, 2025, 10:51 am

Thanks for that info. I may have to give it a try because I want more bytes! Here I was thinking commenting was the only way lol

There are multiple ways for you to obtain bytes, here are a few:

Replying to comments

Creating new threads
Playing Slots
Playing BlackJack
Playing SportsBook
Playing Flip Games in Convo Chat

Or if you don't feel like gambling, you can go to the Currency Exchange, and purchase them from any of the many sellers available.

There might even be more ways of getting them, I just don't remember off the top of my head. I'll send you some though, do with them as you please.
