Thread: THE GUARANTEED FLIP | My Exact \$800-\$1K/Day System | NO Crypto / NO BS EBOOK

ProfitableFlip - June 18, 2025, 3:54 pm

This is based on a real system I personally use to make $1,000+ per day in sales, with around $600–$800 profit daily. No recycled info. No “maybe” results.

If you follow exactly what I teach and actually get inventory, you WILL make sales fast — or I’ll refund you 100%.

Local sales using FB are my go-to and what I recommend, but you can also run this fully online—just ship orders, no in-person sales needed. Either way works 100%. If you do both you’ll maximize profits and sales. You’ll get BULK product/merchandise at 5–20% MSRP and resell for 30–50%.

Sounds good.

I'm US based...have all requirements but time is a bit of an issue due to my job.

How much can be made if I run this primarily online?

Also...does opportunity increase if you live in a larger city?

Thanks.

You could definitely run this after work or even before work, whatever fits your schedule. Just 2–4 hours a day can work, but if you follow the system like I do, this pays more than a job. I treat it like a job because that's exactly what it became.

And yes, doing this online works 100%. But if you're in a larger city, opportunities can multiply simply because there are more listings, buyers, and local flips if you ever choose to take advantage of that too.

Anchosteam - June 19, 2025, 10:03 am

Sweet, how much do you recommend we need to start with to make for to $500 a day profit

ProfitableFlip - June 19, 2025, 10:55 am

(Jun 19, 2025 10:03 AM)Anchosteam Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Sweet, how much do you recommend we need to start with to make for to $500 a day profit

One of the orders I picked up recently cost just $204 plus tax(4% MSRP), and had over $4,500 MSRP.

AND YES I CAN SHOW PROOF OF ALL THIS.

Selling items at just 35–40% of retail, this single flip is set to clear around $2,000+ in sales and $1,400–$1,600+ in profit.

But this isn't passive, you've got to keep sourcing and flipping consistently. The system teaches you how to spot high-margin merchandise, how to move the items fast, and how to reinvest smart.

And here's the thing — the more you buy, the more you stack. That means:

- Buyers don't just pick up one item anymore — they bundle up.
- Shipping costs drop when sourcing from the same location.
- You cut down wait times between flips, so you can keep reselling nonstop.

If you're serious and want to lock in the first student spot, I'll let you in for $1,000 instead of $1,500 if you leave a solid review.

We'll use a trusted middleman to hold the funds until you start seeing money come in. I'm not in a rush, I know once you see the value, you'll be glad to release funds.

Let me know when you're ready to move forward.

Hey my man...what's the minimum in funds that we need for inventory?

Also...do your sources take cc or do they only deal in cash?

Thanks.

ProfitableFlip - June 30, 2025, 7:15 pm

I'm back after a busy weekend!

I'll be messaging everyone back shortly.

Here's how it's going to work:

Whoever sends the funds first will secure their spot and receive their custom quote.

However, I want the very first copy to go to a reputable or upgraded member. Someone who can leave a legit review and vouch. That's what the people want & I'm here to deliver exactly that. :)

I promise you I won't disappoint. No fluff, no BS.

Yes, you'll need to put in work, but if you do, you'll absolutely make over $10,000+ IN PROFIT A MONTH just like I'm doing. This system changed my life. I can now afford things I never could before.

Before this, I couldn't even hold a job because I woke up too late. But now?

This gets me paid so well I wake up early without an alarm. It gave me freedom, discipline, and a real income. I don't work for anyone. I own my time now.

If you're tired of wasting time on games and distractions and you're serious about changing your life, this is for you.

I'm open to working with anyone who's ready. Just know this isn't hype. It's real.

Before we move forward, I want to give you a clear understanding of how this works and what to expect.

The merchandise is sourced from a legitimate company that has been operating for years. This is not some random person on Telegram or a shady vendor that might disappear. This is a real company with a professional platform and full accountability. I've personally invested over $10,000 in merchandise through them in a month alone and can show you receipts and proof of my purchases. I'm consistently flipping inventory with strong profits.

When it comes to starting out, yes, technically you can place a $99 order. But I'll be real with you, that's not the most efficient way to do it. A single small order doesn't justify the shipping. What I recommend is stacking two or three orders from the same location. That way you're spending around $1,250 to $1,500 and that makes the whole process more cost-effective. Saving you shipping and handling times, and shipping costs more importantly.

This strategy works because we're buying at extremely low prices and selling fast at attractive prices. These are real items people use daily, so demand is always there. When priced right, sales are guaranteed ITS A STEAL FOR THEM.

Let me know if you have any other questions before we continue. I want you to feel completely confident in what you're getting into.

EDIT: They accept PayPal, Credit Card and Bank Wire.
Personally I use bank wire, it gives me no issues.

Absolutely, I've stated this many times. Yes, I accept a MM, preferably someone reputable like Zexi. I don't have an issue waiting for the funds to be released until you make money.

I already have 3 people ready to start the contract, and whoever moves forward will be getting the $1,000 spot. I'm not holding spots.

Everyone that signs up is allowed to use a middleman, no matter what spot they get, just to give them that reassurance. I know this isn't $10 you're spending. I want to give you peace of mind that this is probably the last method or mentoring program you'll ever need.

I'm sure whoever writes a review will help a LOT of other members who are really hesitant on trying this.

This cannot be done “remotely” however I’m in the process of working something out to make it “remotely” by hiring someone to work for you and do the stocking, and selling for you in person. But to answer your question at first you’ll need to receive merchandise , stock up and sell it. You’ve got to be available.

Ok I figured I would ask...thanks for answering. Do how much stock is needed to ensure $600+ per day in profit?

Also how long on average do you sit on the merch?

My friend that just really depends on a lot of factors, what you get, how much you get it for, etc. I hope you understand that you've got to keep ordering to continue seeing high daily profits, because with like 1.5-2k investment you could get merchandise worth 8-10k... and you could realistically make 500-600 in profits(1k in sales a day or so) if you buy at 15% sell at 30% it will go fast tho, you wont be able to keep making 500-600 in profit a day because your merch will run out in a week or less at that rate. So it wont be continuously working if you stop ordering merchandise. You've got to keep re-investing, or you'll go from 500-600 day in profits to 150-250 a day in profits when inventory starts getting low, people won't be able to have the ability to be like "oh i want this and this and that" the less inventory the less money you'll be making daily overall. The more inventory the more people interested in products, and they'll come and grab something else completely different while they're at it checking your stuff out at your storage unit or wherever you got your stuff.

SIM-4791795 - July 4, 2025, 3:54 pm

So I'm sure most of us have figured it by now it's nothing unique or special. It's purchasing liquidation lots which are most of the time bunk. Distributors and everyone else will get first dibs before they offload the junk to you. Win $4500 MSRP with $250 bid to offload loads or small junk. I've done this gamble before and never came out on top.

ProfitableFlip - July 4, 2025, 4:17 pm

This isn't the case at all. I understand you had a bad experience with whatever it is you did, with whatever source or distributor you used, but that doesn't make your outcome the standard. I've placed multiple orders and every single one has been profitable and I can back that up with proof.

Someone has already taken the first spot by placing an order, going first, and releasing payment without using a middleman. That shows real trust and initiative. Their review will be posted soon and it will speak for itself and for everyone wondering if this works. That person's results will hold more weight than the opinion of someone who's never tried it, or someone who failed and now assumes the method doesn't work.

If you didn't succeed with this, you can't speak on what success looks like. I'm the one who's had consistent results. I'm the one who's built a method. I know exactly what to buy, how to price it, how to flip it, and how to avoid junk. That's what I offer through my mentorship.

What you're missing is the knowledge and that's what this provides.

OH AND BY THE WAY:

You bought junk. I don't.

I teach my students exactly how to avoid that. They'll know every single item they're buying no blind guesses, no surprises. They'll be trained to evaluate deals on their own, and they'll always have direct access to me. My personal number is available to guide them on whether something is worth it or not. That's the difference.

Correct, a storage unit is preferred. A unit with DOC is EVEN better as they charge extra for lift gate, so having DOC saves you money and time when they unload. I do not recommend selling out of your house.

9 Mentorship Spots Open

My first student has officially paid me directly with no middleman. He's a busy person but mentioned he'll be available to start on July 15 and will post a review once he gets going. Hopefully he comes back with strong results so others can see the true potential of this.

I've personally bought a few methods on this forum. I'm not here to disrespect anyone, but let's be honest. I kept running into so called "easy" methods that come with a 100 page ebook or comes with 8-9 videos, each lasting 30 to 45 minutes. Nobody has time for that.

If you want real answers and a way to start making money quickly, I'll provide you with the exact resources and knowledge I gave my first student. Everything can be explained over the phone in under an hour. That's all it took to break everything down, deliver the method, and answer his questions.

Message me if you're ready to get started.
NOTHING BUT RESULTS.
