Thread: I found all the Awards Hidden away within the Website!

Rsynced - June 19, 2025, 11:59 am

Now I have them all!!! HAHAHA

Anyways, took a bit to figure this out but here you go:

The secret is here: https://hackforums.net/uploads/awards/award_sprite.png

Syndicate - June 19, 2025, 12:10 pm

You can also find all the awards here <https://hackforums.net/myawards.php>

Stashyy - June 19, 2025, 12:10 pm

I used to have the alot of those. esp the OG crypto ones.

I wish i had my weed and pokemon award plus the hackercraft ones.

Lol, right click on award, inspect, right there in css.

3 seconds.

3 seconds.

but then you have to split them and put them back together so you get a bigger image like the one I posted.

Nice haha! How hard would you say it was to accomplish? Or do you like the site so much you found it easy?

Was just randomly inspecting the website one day with chrome and came across the sprite image file. I was like, what is this? I ran it through AI and discovered it contained all the awards. I then did some dirty work and split all the images and put them back together to achieve the larger image. Now you could technically crop out all all awards and have them as separate image files. Not sure the point of all of this, but it was an interesting experiment.

Awards don't mean anything anymore and this page /myawards.php has been known forever OP

Why do you say that awards do not mean anything anymore. Also this is not the point of my thread. I extracted the awards from the sprites sheet manually.

Because it's all a money grab I remember when they actually meant something years ago...nobody cares about them now and nowadays you will see a user with 25+ awards just because they spent a little money on them. I saw somebody with like 12 blackhat awards lol remember when that actually meant something? I sure do

edit: sorry for going off topic

Why do you think it stopped meaning something?

The user with that many black hat rewards Scrubspoo Has them from a weird situation.

Awards still mean a lot and can be earned with the award goals and special events where you can gain them.

If you would like to learn more just ask happy to share.

So, using money to keep the website up is bad?

All those awards look awesome. I really like the old internet vibe. It seems like those are some HQ pixels.

Nvr seen most of them before this experiment.

I guess this is why I was so stoked about it.?

Nice find, my new friend. However having been here for a while they all look familiar. The ones that catch my eye are the newer ones I see people obtaining.

I could put more time into it, some are cropped out :(

This took several hours, but I was just playing, so it was not like a hard job. Just stopped being in the mood as it stopped being interesting on top of frustration having to constantly insult the AI and make it my bitch to get things done right.

Only bought Uber, most are beyond my budget, but I thought of getting the money bag bytes holder award, if only I could hold on to them and not gamble or sell for crypto...

This look me less than ten seconds to type into AI. Not every award on the awards page is shown as 1-227. Some awards are not listed anymore, and therefore some numbers are missing. The awards that are listed anymore reflect as a Diamond.

How do you go about getting the runescape award? I've been playing for 20+ years and am still playing cough Omni if you see this

Oh I thought this was an image when I quoted a reply? 10 seconds I was like what AI is this? Cheater ?

The Coins award was a custom award purchased as a bundle when Omni did an award sale. I don't believe there are any grants left, but if you contact him then he may sell it to you for an unknown price.. Based off of the description for the award then you may have to talk to Biggy about it, and see if he will allow you to purchase it from Omni directly.

Good looks. I've reached out to Biggy about it. I think Omni will see this anyway he seems to be seeing many of my posts.

Good deal. I'd rather out to each of them, and see if you can't get you a nice bundle of 2147M. ?
