levelttmo - June 24, 2025, 6:20 pm

b]WELCOME TO THE MOST HQ METHOD IN THIS FORUM[/b]

With this guide, you will be able to steal/exploit illegal casinos and start gambling risk-free.
START TODAY!

How I came across this method?

I love gambling and I started gambling through illegal casinos quite early since the odds were always way better on sports betting and also because most of the legal casinos that operate legally in my country do not have the option of live casino. I have been gambling for quite some time, years, and with this experience I got from gambling in this websites I came across an exploit that literally makes me gamble risk free, where I deposit my money and no matter what I do with it, I will never lose that money.

What makes a casino illegal?

A casino that is basically not licensed in your country and they can't legally operate in your territory. So to access them you do it through special links/vpn.

What can you do with this exploit?

You can literally either double your money, duplication or just gamble risk free because you will always get your money back no matter what.

Is this legal?

Since this are illegal casinos, nothing can happen legally, because simply the same way you can't protect yourself legally if they randomly decide to not give you your gains/enable you to withdraw your money, they can't protect themselves either if you decide to steal them.

What can happen then, and can I do this multiple times?

The worst that can happen, is you getting banned from most online casinos since they use the same payment providers. There's obviously ways to bypass this.

Will this ever get saturated?

As long as this illegal casinos exists, this will never not work.

Is this easy to do?

Of course, if you are lazy this is for you. It will just take some time to get your money back, I would say 10-30 days.

Are you providing vouch copies?

I could provide if you are very high reputable member.

Is there any chance the casinos are ran by you?

There is literally 10k plus casinos you can hit, I will let you know some I have used and hit in the past but the method works the same for every single casino. Its 10x easier to find a curacao licensed casino than a local regulated casino.

If you want I could help you finding casinos before hand, just with a little search online.

Because it can never be patched, me doing doesnt prevent others to do it too. We exploit something this casinos use to operate illegally in every country, so for this to be patched, every casino has to disappear completely.

If this was something that could potentially get patched in the future because of abuse, I would never sell it.

You've stated that you'll give out a vouch copy to a "high reputable member" .. but I've seen multiple users ask for a vouch copy, and while you answered their other questions.. you completely ignored their request for a vouch copy. I can only assume that the reason for this is because those users were not "high reputable" in your opinion.

I would like to think that I'm a high enough reputable member to meet your quota for a vouch? If not, then I truly don't believe you're actually giving out a vouch copy, and that there is something about the method that you're not being honest about.. because if the method was as good as you proclaim in your OP.. then why wouldn't you of given out a vouch copy already, so that you can get an actual review.. and then start selling some copies? Because from what I've read, no one on-site has purchased the method from you yet..

If the method is legit, and is as you claim.. then setup a contract, and send over a vouch copy, I'll gladly test the method.. and provide a detailed review of the product. All it takes is 1 good review, for others to start buying.. no one is going to fork over $1.2k without their being at least one review.

Since this is an exploit and impossible to get patched, because technically casinos had to disappear entirely or change their whole protocol which is not possible because otherwise they wouldnt be able to exist, I literally do not lose any money selling this method thats why this high ticket. I dont lose anything in sharing this information for the right price, so why not sell it.

1. The success rate is 90% because 9 out of 10 times we do this, it will work, although the one time this wont work wont affect you in any way since you never lose money "trying" the method
2. Theres 10k plus casinos to hit, you can find one right now on your own just using google, if you dont want me to recomend a casino, I wont.

Nope, this an exact method with guaranteed results. it does not related to any casino games.

I will buy this method if you will publicly answer my questions as a lot of your responses have been

"PM me". If you can't answer a specific question publicly because it compromises the method, then say that.

- 1) I'm in Canada. Will I need VPN or something else? Will I need to use KYC OR come up with a KYC bypass?
- 2) Do you provide a list of Casinos this works on? How many are there? Or do you provide a few and then we need to find more ourselves? Expand please
- 3) What is the current price? Sorry just confused theres been a few price changes I think
- 4) Is there a minimum and maximum amount required?
- 5) What is the payment method required? Let me expand. How do I need to deposit money, and how do I get it withdrawn? PayPal? Crypto? Credit Card?

I never used a VPN ever in this method, tbh if you use a VPN its not going to work, because you wont be able to deposit correctly on the casino.

This does not work in legal casinos in any way at all, because we exploit something the legal casinos dont do.

Also not every deposit is refundable, the average normie cant do this method without my help first try yonaro231 - September 30, 2025, 1:23 am well I'm not saying he is doing that but I guess what is going on here that the casinos are all fake and all yours, If I deposit 200$ you will double it for me if I follow your method steps and let me get 400$ back so you can get the money from middle man, If I deposit 1200$ which is higher from what I paid to mm then the method will fail you will let the middle man refund me the 1100 so I don't call you scammer.

Again I'm not saying you doing this but what I'm saying makes some sense since none shall sell a method like this unless there is something wrong with it.

i dont even recommend casinos if you dont ask me to, theres so many casinos to hit, you can just research them yourself and choose which one to hit, because every single one works. im on other forums and have a lot of people making very good money with this, not some pennies. never ever scammed anyone in a year of selling theres nothing anyone can say to bs about my method, because it works for everyone, almost a year of selling, not a single complaint with more than 50 deals at this point, even admins from other forums know this because i got a lot of successfull mm deals, with people making up to 5/6 figs, i dont own the casinos, you can get those casinos anywhere by a simple search on google, they are probably promoted by ur favorite streamer, i accept mm until money back, i really dont get it.

We can promote casinos completely faceless to an audience that will register and depo on those casinos, its not affiliate, because we also make money on flat fees per month. - doesnt mean i work with them, everyone can get this kind of deals, the method is on growing the audience and monetizing the right away.

+ its okay to also have an exploit that allows us to steal.

Bought the method on October 7th and tried it out right away. I have to say, it works, though it takes some time for the money to come. So far, I've made about $1.5k with this ebook (in under a month), and it doesn't take much effort, around 2 hours a day max (a bit more if you're a gambling addict ?).

You can easily make the $1.2k back within a month and keep profiting afterward. Just note that some casinos do require KYC, so keep that in mind. The seller's also really helpful and walks you through the process step by step.

Questions:

1) Can more than one person do this method on the same casino? Does the method stop working if too many people do it to the same casino (I know you mentioned there are 10k + casinos).

2) Since some casinos require KYC, are there any risk or complications with giving them a social security number? I ask because I wonder if they could get upset and retaliate since they know the identity (retaliate illegally in some way since these aren't exactly the most moral businesses).

3) Do you think there are enough casinos out there who do not require KYC to make this a profitable investment if someone wanted to avoid giving their information?

4) You mentioned that they can ban you from payment processors that many casinos use. Are the ways to get around this complicated or a hassle/risky? Example: Needing to purchase fake IDs, get new payment accounts, bank accounts, etc. to get around this.

5) To clarify, is it max of 2k per day by duplication (invest 2k to gamble with, get out 4k)?

6) Lastly, do the refunds of your money require talking to them over the phone and getting into a back and forth conversation, or is it efficient through email requests or website requests? Arguing with someone over the phone is never fun.

2) Since some casinos require KYC, are there any risk or complications with giving them a social security number? I ask because I wonder if they could get upset and retaliate since they know the identity (retaliate illegally in some way since these aren't exactly the most moral businesses). There are casinos u can use without needing to register with kyc if thats a concern of yours, but this casinos couldnt give a fuck about the money you taking.

5) To clarify, is it max of 2k per day by duplication (invest 2k to gamble with, get out 4k)? - no u can make multiple 2k deposits in one go, making it 5 or 6x or u name it. and theres casinos w max depo of 6k.

6) Lastly, do the refunds of your money require talking to them over the phone and getting into a back and forth conversation, or is it efficient through email requests or website requests? So far, I've made about $1.5k with this ebook (in under a month), and it doesn't take much effort, around 2 hours a day max (a bit more if you're a gambling addict ?).

You can easily make the $1.2k back within a month and keep profiting afterward. Just note that some casinos do require KYC, so keep that in mind. The seller's also really helpful and walks you through the process step by step.

Max 30 days, can be shorter.

Just chiming in, considering the time to receive the refund takes close to 30 days or maybe even longer as OP claims, it could be the reason why he didn't get his feedback (vouches) from other people who purchased.

Either way, the OP / Seller asked me to DM him via Convo almost at the start of the month, to which he never responded. Just dropping this for any future buyers, as I wanted to leave an in-depth vouch being an old member.

b]WELCOME TO THE MOST HQ METHOD IN THIS FORUM[/b]

With this guide, you will be able to steal/exploit illegal casinos and start gambling risk-free.
START TODAY!

How I came across this method?

I love gambling and I started gambling through illegal casinos quite early since the odds were always way better on sports betting and also because most of the legal casinos that operate legally in my country do not have the option of live casino. I have been gambling for quite some time, years, and with this experience I got from gambling in this websites I came across an exploit that literally makes me gamble risk free, where I deposit my money and no matter what I do with it, I will never lose that money.

What makes a casino illegal?

A casino that is basically not licensed in your country and they can't legally operate in your territory. So to access them you do it through special links/vpn.

What can you do with this exploit?

You can literally either double your money, duplication or just gamble risk free because you will always get your money back no matter what.

Is this legal?

Since this are illegal casinos, nothing can happen legally, because simply the same way you can't protect yourself legally if they randomly decide to not give you your gains/enable you to withdraw your money, they can't protect themselves either if you decide to steal them.

What can happen then, and can I do this multiple times?

The worst that can happen, is you getting banned from most online casinos since they use the same payment providers. There's obviously ways to bypass this.

Will this ever get saturated?

As long as this illegal casinos exists, this will never not work.

Is this easy to do?

Of course, if you are lazy this is for you. It will just take some time to get your money back, I would say 10-30 days.

Are you providing vouch copies?

I could provide if you are very high reputable member.

Is there any chance the casinos are ran by you?

There is literally 10k plus casinos you can hit, I will let you know some I have used and hit in the past but the method works the same for every single casino. Its 10x easier to find a curacao licensed casino than a local regulated casino.

If you want I could help you finding casinos before hand, just with a little search online.

Wolf's Vouch Review (Invitation accepted):

For any high-priced methods & services, I urge people to wait for vouch reviews or client reviews before they buy into any method(s).

(I am an Independent reviewer representing people like yourself)

On to the Method/Service:

As said above, people should wait for vouch & client reviews before they jump into any method(s) or service(s) provided if the seller is providing.

levelttmo has not been verbally active with me besides his initial sharing where he shared the method with me (forwarded messages by him, which I reckon he forwards to all purchasing clients). But I reckon from his thread posts, that he is very prompt in his responses and seems to be someone who is very helpful once you purchase from him.

As OP had granted me a vouch copy, I had been checking it out and I finally have had the time to provide a decent review.

On to the Method/Service:

The Method which is being sold by levelttmo is something which is very clever, within its own rights. I can clearly see how someone can actually end up making back the money they spend to get access to this 'method'. It's not directly associated with gambling but you are rather working the backend of these illegal casinos to double your funds, which as I wrote above is very clever. It's a genuine legal loophole and considering OP provides MM, you have nothing to lose.

Originality: 9/10

Let's start with one of the most important things to any methods/services being provided. How original is the method? Why is it important?

Spoiler (Click to View)

Will be completely honest with you. I have had experience with Gambling scripts before from HF, whether it was HSDE or Elysium or some others back in the day, I won't name here. Most of them at the end of the way made you lose money - there was never a guarantee, nor can ever there be a guarantee in Gambling.

But this particular method is something completely unique & original. It's not related to gambling which is why you stand a chance to profit from this.

~SUPERB from me.

Content: 8/10

Next most important thing - Is the content satisfactory?

Spoiler (Click to View)

Not much to say, as everything provided to you will be in the Pastebin text following the purchase which is self-explanatory. Though it can be a bit confusing for many who are just starting out but with proper & excellent support which will be provided by the seller. Rest assured, you'd be up & running within hours. Overall, I am very very satisfied with the content. No glitz & glamor - straight to the point.

...

Method: 10/10

Next most important thing? What is the method? Is it truly unique?

Spoiler (Click to View)

This is something authentic, original, unique and something that works. I fail to see how it can be replicated on a big scale but his proposed $5k to $6k a month is easily doable if you follow the steps to the T. So, yes, it is unique in the sense, I haven't seen something like this in recent years and secondly, because it is not directly gambling, it 'works' as intended.

...

Difficulty: 8/10

How difficult is the thing? Amateur or Pro level?

Spoiler (Click to View)

His steps are well-explained and I believe, for any difficulties that you may face, he can guide you with the steps including providing resources to optional / additional things that you may require.

...

Price: 7/10

Pricing structure - Is it okay?

Spoiler (Click to View)

Let's just say - the price is steep compared to what most of the services & methods are provided here but its worth the price and you can definitely make back your initial investment and also profits on top of it, if you stay at it.

Overall: 9/10

My Verdict - Totally worth it even if the entry barrier is higher than most methods.

Spoiler (Click to View)

You will rarely see me vouching for most methods as I am aware on the kind of things they try to pull-off behind the back, however with this - I am not ashamed to say but I am vouching for this. As it works and what works - simply works. No use saying otherwise. The seller has been good with his services - his behavior, his guidance, his help, his friendliness, his method - it's a breath of fresh air to see something which is actually very good ROI.

This is not Gambling or script associated to Gambling - Just a simple exploit of a legal loophole, that simply 'works'.

(Have a Lovely & Great Day everyone)

Regards, Wolf ?

As the OP said, it would work with any casinos operating illegally. And indeed there are quite a few to hit. I can't validate the OP's 10k+ but considering gambling is lucrative, there will always be new ones popping up. So, yeah.

And no, I do not recall anywhere where you'd have to speak with someone over phone call.

Is there any chance the casinos are ran by you?

There is literally 10k plus casinos you can hit, I will let you know some I have used and hit in the past but the method works the same for every single casino. Its 10x easier to find a curacao licensed casino than a local regulated casino.

If you want I could help you finding casinos before hand, just with a little search online.

I don't even know how it's possible, but this method works. I couldn't believe it, yet it does. I made a contract, I used jcole as a middleman, I have the proofs.

The legendary Enlil Wolf has already said everything there is to say, I won't go into further technical details. It's definitely the best method I've ever found on HF.

I have to be honest, part of me hopes levelttmo will stop selling it. It works, and it works too well. And I want to keep using it for years.

Thank you, thank you so much. In a short time, this method could change my life.

Seems interesting, quick question.

On average, how long can one expect to make back their initial payment?

Honest review after several days of testing.

TL;DR: Do I recommend purchasing the method? Honestly, unfortunately, no.

The method can be approached in two ways:

The first, scalable and replicable, requires "hitting" a specific condition (not gambling-related), which I actually hit right away the first time, allowing me to recoup my money.

Subsequently, I tried every day, even for HOURS, to repeat the process, but there was no way. No way.

So what I keep asking myself is: was I just lucky the first time? I really don't know the answer.

I should also add that the method is actually available for free online in a forum. Obviously, I won't say where or how (not even privately).

The second way to approach the method is what levelttmo continues to recommend when the first doesn't work (which, however, should work, given that it's advertised). However, it puts your bank account at risk (if repeated) and involves a modus operandi I disagree with. So I won't elaborate further.

I gave the seller a neutral rating. Because, in fact, it can't be said that the method doesn't work in an absolute sense (otherwise, I wouldn't have even gotten my initial money back). However, in all honesty, it must be said that it doesn't even fully correspond to what's advertised on this and other forums.

I don't write many posts, but I always try to tell the truth. It's the only real way to build and sustain a strong and effective community.

Thank you.

This a very unfair review.

Buyer made his money back with quite ease with 2/3 days of difference and could have made more in that process.

Theres 2 methods that you purchase from me that u can use to get the money from the casinos - one that always works but takes more time from 24hours to 30 days. The first method is the OG and is hittable every single time. The 2nd method is a bit more tricky because you got to have a bit more patience to find a certain merchant that enables to almost duplicate in hours. With my assistance is way easier to get.

Buyer has had some technical issues for the past 2-3 days and we have been in contact, although for the past few days he hasnt contacted for my help and made this review after a week ago literally saying this was the perfect and unseen method.

i can even accept mm with conditions of money being released after 3 or 4x the initial investment to mitigate what is being said. Because if u can do it once, u can always do it twice and way more.

and yes i got a lot of reviews from almost every forum because everyone is making money.

and yes the mm conditions can be only hitting the second method and first method will never put your account at risk by following our guidelines. and we are updating to do it even with crypto and method is not available for free anywhere xd, not even with leakages since im doing a 1:1 mentorship.

how can u make such a dishonest review when making way more than the initial price of this method is done with quite ease.

+ with my mm conditions.

this is pure ragebait. if it worked for you, you could have waited for me to solve ur problems and have a better review if u wanted to make a new one after more time, not 2-3 days of some technical problems that were not even problems, because everything was hittable. you just wanted to perform the 2nd method and its okay.

not give a neutral rating when u literally got ur money back (1500€) and saw it worked, after 2-3 days of more testing, didnt even asked for my help for some days, and decided to make this review without even contacting and making assumptions of a free method etc.

theres people in this forum and other forums making 5 figures monthly w ease. reviews speak from themselves i can even put u in contact with this people because they are mostly repped members here and on cracked.

OP has never written so much, neither here nor privately. This already indicates nervousness. I'll respond point by point.

"This is a very unfair review."

It's not, I simply wrote the truth of my experience.

"Buyer made his money back quite easily with 2-3 days of difference and could have made more in that process."

I confirm the timeframe. You're telling me now that I could have done more, assuming it's true (we'll never know, you can't change the past).

"There are two methods you purchase from me that you can use to get the money from the casinos - one that always works but takes longer, from 24 hours to 30 days. The first method is the OG and is hittable every single time. The second method is a bit trickier because you have to have a bit more patience to find a certain merchant that enables you to almost duplicate in hours. With my assistance, it's way easier to get."

The first one probably always works (to be verified), but as you taught me, you can't repeat it infinitely. It's not scalable and replicable every single time. That's why the second method comes into play, but it's the one that, at least for me, hasn't been replicable. You talk about having a little more patience, but as I wrote and as you know, I tried for hours and days and there was no way. Your support on this point doesn't change things; if that particular merchant doesn't get through, it doesn't get through.

"Buyer has had some technical issues for the past 2-3 days, and we have been in contact, although for the past few days he hasn't contacted me for help and made this review after a week ago, literally saying this was the perfect and unseen method."

I contacted you to explain the problem, but your only response (and in fact the only possible one, I can't blame you) was to try it on other casinos because some of your customers had successfully applied the method again. In short, nothing that could have concretely changed things; it's just luck, as I wrote in my previous post.

I confirm and agree that it seemed like the perfect method that could change my life, and that I'd never seen anything like it. I truly believed it, and I don't take back what I wrote in the past. But unfortunately, I realized that my hope was a vain illusion and not true.

"I can even accept mm with conditions of money being released after 3 or 4 times the initial investment to mitigate what is being said. Because if you can do it once, you can always do it twice and way more."

I accept mm, and in fact, I haven't had any problems with this; it's a truly excellent experience. But whether you can repeat the method so many times remains to be seen.

"And yes, I got a lot of reviews from almost every forum because everyone is making money."

You keep saying this thing about everyone making money. I don't see all this positive feedback after all this time around. It seems to me, however, that they never really get into the details, and after weeks or months.

"and yes, the mm conditions can only be hit with the second method."

I don't understand what you mean, but I repeat that I have no problem with the mm. On this point, we agree.

"and the first method will never put your account at risk by following our guidelines. And we are updating to do it even with crypto."

The pastebin says something different. Regarding the crypto issue, it's yet another thing I've learned here, something never communicated in the past.

"and the method is not available for free anywhere xd, not even with leaks since I'm doing a 1:1 mentorship."

1:1 mentorship would be short and quick replies on Telegram. It's not bad support (never said that, in fact), but a 1:1 mentorship is another matter.

"how can u make such a dishonest review when making way more than the initial price of this method is done with quite ease.

+ with my mm conditions."

You simplify and emphasize a method that can't be replicated in the same way or with the same ease you claim. This is what I dispute. You have to be clear and transparent when selling something, and you aren't on several points. You bring up the MM issue again, which I've never criticized.

"This is pure ragebait. I've already answered this point.

"Don't give a neutral rating when you literally got your money back (€1,500) and saw it worked, after 2-3 days of more testing, didn't even ask for my help for a few days, and decided to do this review without even contacting me and making assumptions about a free method, etc."

I already answered this point in the previous post. The neutral assessment is correct because the method's description It doesn't correspond 100% to its actual implementation. There's unfair advertising, which is a practice that can't lead to a fully positive evaluation.

"There are people in this forum and other forums making 5 figures monthly with ease. Reviews speak for themselves. I can even put you in contact with these people because they are mostly repped members here and on crack."

Okay, they're all making a lot of money, and if people are making money (especially from casinos), I can only be more than happy. I simply beg to differ from your statement, having seen what the method exposes. You're an intelligent person and have a great understanding of communication, so hats off to you. But let's not mislead people and let's not spread false messages.

That's all.

I don't understand how my support hasn't been on point since I always answered all your questions (this all happened in a span of less than a week I could have been busy) he got his money (1500€) doubled and then tried doing it again with 2nd method for 2-3 days and had some issues that I could promptly solve since I do this everyday and I get it almost everyday because I get mm deals almost daily.

"I contacted you to explain the problem, but your only response (and in fact the only possible one, I can't blame you) was to try it on other casinos because some of your customers had successfully applied the method again. I don't understand how in 2-3 days on a method that has been sold for over a year and has the review that it has and I always accepted mm and there's people that are contracted that have already gotten their money back more times because their conditions were to actually have at least 2 successful duplications for release. And I repeat the first method is the OG method and it is easily scalable and repeatable with my guidelines, and it's the method that has been running for all of this time, the 2nd method is a cheat that I found the last 1/2 months and has been working really well with fast refunding.

"You simplify and emphasize a method that can't be replicated in the same way or with the same

Stop being braindead here.

You are ragebaiting because you found some difficulties on the process of a 2nd method. Even someone who understand the first method doesnt even need to do it to understand they can do it multiple times.

I can do money release after making minimum of minimum 3x of buyers initial investment.

This sums it all and voids everything you have said, because it is clear bad faith.

I am not selling for a month or two months, more than a year on multiple forums and everything i claim on my thread is factual.

You cant change a review in 2-3 days, its impossible.

If it was something that was going around for weeks, i would understand. Now we are talking about a span of a few days and buyer has not contacted me to turn around the situation.

clear bad faith

Occupato - January 31, 2026, 12:23 pm

How long must we continue?

"I don't understand how my support hasn't been on point since I always answered all your questions (this all happened in a span of less than a week, I could have been busy). He got his money (€1,500) doubled, and then tried doing it again with the 2nd method for 2-3 days and had some issues that I could promptly solve since I do this every day and I get it almost every day because I get deals almost daily."

Here too, as usual, I see you shifting the focus and not answering the substance. I didn't say that your support wasn't on point, but that 1:1 mentorship is a very different thing. And you know that too. You answered all the questions (granted I didn't ask very many, precisely because I always saw short and sometimes hasty answers), but when I expressed my difficulties in replicating the method, you didn't offer me any concrete solutions, because in reality it wouldn't have been possible, given that the replicability of the method depends exclusively on luck.

I didn't have any issues; the merchant that was supposed to appear simply didn't appear (and still doesn't appear). They're not issues, it's not my fault, it's not that I'm not good at using the method.

It's the method (I'm always talking about the second one) that isn't as scalable and replicable as you advertise. You have to accept that.

You keep repeating that I got my money back (I was the first to write it), and that you sell the method every day using mm. Perfect, but I think the readers of this forum are smart enough to understand a written text on the first reading.

"I don't understand how in 2-3 days on a method that has been sold for over a year and has the review that it has and I always accepted, mm, and there are people who are contracted who have already gotten their money back multiple times because their conditions were to actually have at least 2 successful duplications per release. And I repeat the first method is the OG method and it is easily scalable and repeatable with my guidelines, and it's the method that has been running for all of this time. The 2nd method is a cheat that I found the last 1.5 months and has been working really well with fast refunds."

And again with this mm.

What contracts are you talking about? On this forum (which for me is the only one that matters, because I consider the others less serious) you have only one point of credibility and that's the one I assigned you following our contract. I don't see any others. Everyone got their money back, everyone duplicated their money, everyone got rich, but I only see a lot of proclamations.

The first method is the original one, repeat. So why did you write to me on Telegram: "Don't worry about pastebin, it's completely outdated"? And why, right after sending me the pastebin, at the time of purchase, did you write: "This is not the main method"? If there are two methods, the main one is the pastebin one, or the one from the merchant you need to catch. I haven't been told of any others. You keep contradicting yourself and trying to manipulate the truth.

"I literally said I can accept mm with 3 or 4x the money invested. If it's done once, it can be done multiple times; there are two methods you can use, literally."

I've lost count of the number of times you've written about using a mm. No one has ever challenged you on this.

"Stop being braindead here.

You are ragebaiting because you found some difficulties with the process of a second method. Even someone who understands the first method doesn't even need to do it to understand they can do it multiple times."

You've been using the word ragebaiting ever since you started bombarding me with messages on Telegram a few hours ago, and now here. It's not me who's having any difficulty, it's the second method, which isn't what you claim. Period. That's all there is to it, the simple truth. And the first method can't be replicated as easily as you'd like to believe. It's written in the pastebin, which contains the first method, which you then claim is completely outdated. My God, so many contradictions. All it takes is a little clarity, without changing your mind every two seconds.

"I can make money release after making a minimum of 3x the buyers' initial investment."

I don't want money from anyone; I've recouped my initial outlay. I simply want the truth, I want to protect this community from those who promise false illusions, I don't want the wrong messages to be spread.

"This sums it all and voids everything you have said, because it is clearly bad faith."

I shared my experience with your method, which you simply can't accept. And I don't even understand why, really. You're full of money (so you say) and you're selling a method you think is incredibly powerful. I don't see why a single dissenting voice should make you so angry. I'm completely honest.

"I am not selling for a month or two months, more than a year on multiple forums, and everything I claim on my thread is factual."

You've been here since June 23, 2025, on contracts completed I get a nice 0 (even you and I have a contract that's been in place for several days, but it's been pending. I don't understand why, since for me it was already completed a while ago). I don't see anything official, and are you really sure you want to talk about other forums? On a competing forum, I see the topic: "? MAKE 5/6 FIGS MONTHLY PROMOTING CASINOS ? COMPLETELY FACELESS ? REAL BUSINESS." Well, that sounds like a conflict of interest.

No, everything you say is not factual.

"You can't change a review in 2-3 days, it's impossible."

Who decided that? And why?

"If it was something that was going around for weeks, I would understand. Now we're talking about a span of a few days, and the buyer hasn't contacted me to turn around the situation."

False. As I wrote in the previous post, I contacted you, and obviously you couldn't give me a solution because there isn't one, since the second method is based on luck. That's it. That's true.

"Clear bad faith."

Yet another repetition.

levelttmo - January 31, 2026, 12:37 pm

Bought method - made money back (1500€) in 2 days - tested for another 2/3 days decided the method doesn't work as expected without even trying first method because it goes against his "morals" xd. + jumped with conclusions for 2nd method without even having my proper help because i was busy this week.

all of this after saying my method was unique, priceless and brilliant and i should stop selling it.

also, keep in mind, i have mm deals almost everyday, and i have been doing the 2nd method almost everyday.

And yes, if you want i can show you all the mm deals i have with admins from cracked, patched and hf (jcole) and i can give u the contact of my clients (from those mm deals) i can show all the chat history, and they will tell you their experience.

Theres not much more to argue.

If you are so worried about the community, I literally just said my guy:

- Money released with MM with at least 3x or 4x the initial investment.
(this is the best deal in ages in forums)

Theres not much more to stay.

Stay in yours, i stay in mine.

Worried about method not working?

MM deal until successful duplication

Worried about method scalability and further money making?

Okay, MM deal with money released with at least 3 or 4x the initial investment

No brainer.

"Bought method - made money back (€1,500) in 2 days - tested for another 2-3 days, decided the method doesn't work as expected without even trying the first method because it goes against his "morals" xd. + jumped to conclusions for the second method without even getting my own help because I was busy this week."

I didn't decide the method doesn't work; I realized the second method is entirely down to luck. The first isn't replicable or scalable, but it's only usable a few times, and you know why (I won't reveal the details of the method here, obviously).

Your help can't do anything for the second method, you know that well. Don't fool anyone who reads this.

Exactly, my words, dictated by the fact that the first time it worked. But it was just luck; when I wrote that post, I couldn't have known that yet. Now I do.

"also, keep in mind, i have mm deals almost everyday, and i have been doing the 2nd method almost everyday".

"And yes, if you want i can show you all the mm deals i have with admins from cracked, patched and hf (jcole) and i can give u the contact of my clients (from those mm deals) i can show all the chat history, and they will tell you their experience".

It's called: "Victim blaming".

I recognized this before, OP is a great communicator and manipulator. And I don't say that in an offensive way.

"There's not much more to argue."

That's what I say too, but you don't accept an idea different from yours.

"If you are so worried about the community, I literally just said my guy:

- Money released with MM with at least 3x or 4x the initial investment.
(this is the best deal in ages in forums)".

Best deal in ages in forums, but the cold numbers speak for themselves, and they're the ones that count.

"There's not much more to stay.

Stay in yours, I stay in mine."

Exactly. Since you're flush with cash and selling this method daily, just any savethetruthnow won't cause you problems.

"Worried about method not working?

MM deal until successful duplication

Worried about method scalability and further money making?

Okay, MM deal with money released with at least 3 or 4x the initial investment

No brainer."

Manipulator of the year.

levelttmo - January 31, 2026, 1:03 pm

calling me a manipulator because i started to accept MM deals with money released with at least 3 or 4x the initial investment. - i literally let people choose the middleman to use and EVEN if they dont make more money after the money is released (which is not possible) they already made an extra 6k. I am literally saying this so you got LITERALLY no more shit to say.

For the sake of the community, as he says.

And btw.

The first is replicable and scalable because its literally THE method that is being sold everytime. 2nd method is only been a thing since past 1/2 months and is being used on mm deals because its faster to get payouts.

And is yes scalable and repeatable, its the same method enlil wolf reviewed, its the same method everyone been reviewing and giving positive feedback. you dont even know how that method works, because u didnt even show the minimum interest to know how it works and ask for my mentoring on it and let me explain you how it is scalable.

literally its the same method as someone with a way higher rank than you reviewed and tested, and he says is scalable. Someone who hasnt done the first method nor even tried it, and stuck with 2 method for 2-3 days and say this was trash and everything.

You already said everything that happened, why are you still here if i just mitigated the risk of it not being scalable for starting to accept mm deals with 3 or 4x the initial investment.

Go with your life, even you said im not a scammer, so this condition will mitigate what you just said.

I solved your problem, brother

Occupato - January 31, 2026, 1:24 pm

"calling me a manipulator because I started to accept MM deals with money released with at least 3 or 4x the initial investment".

Yet another repetition.

"i literally let people choose the middleman to use and EVEN if they dont make more money after the money is released (which is not possible) they already made an extra 6k. I am literally saying this so you got LITERALLY no more shit to say".

It will always be my word against yours. I can't prove it (because since I'm an honest person I asked the mm to release the money as soon as I got my initial expense back, without further "3 or 4x" multiplications which you are underlining with so much emphasis today), and you can't prove it.

"The first is replicable and scalable because its literally THE method that is being sold every time. 2nd method is only been a thing since past 1/2 months and is being used on mm deals because its faster to get payouts".

No, it's not scalable. And it can be replicated within a limited number of times.

"And it is yes scalable and repeatable, its the same method enlil wolf reviewed, its the same method everyone been reviewing and giving positive feedback. you don't even know how that method works, because u didn't even show the minimum interest to know how it works and ask for my mentoring on it and let me explain to you how it is scalable".

I know how it works because the pastebin was conceptually clear, even at the point where it said not to repeat it many times in the same account so as not to raise red flags. Man, you're talking to someone who bought your method. You can make fun of those who don't know him, not me.

"literally its the same method as someone with a way higher rank than you reviewed and tested, and he says is scalable. Someone who hasn't done the first method nor even tried it, and stuck with 2 method for 2-3 days and say this was trash and everything".

Again victim blaming.

I'm still here because you keep doing false advertising, repeating the same slogans over and over, manipulating the truth.

"Go with your life, even you said I'm not a scammer, so this condition will mitigate what you just said."

You're self-centered, and you continue to prove it.

Of course I'm moving on with my life, and you should too. Also, yours should be even better than mine, considering you say you have tons of money. Yet, it's Saturday night, and you're here angrily typing away because some nobody dared to question (and get to the heart of) your golden method.

"I solved your problem, brother."

Psychological projection?

- I always accepted mm until first successfull duplication, thats always been my modus operandis and we both agreed on that, theres some people who ask me for instead of first duplication, 2x or 3x and i never refused.

just like other clients bought it too and TESTED it which is key, enlil wolf as well, i already said i have countless mm deals, you can ask jcole, liars from cracked and from patched beastmode bro.. cmon. if you want to fact check what im saying is so easy.

you can scale by using ur own account a lot of times, i got prove of using more than 10 times with different ammounts, on ur own name u can open diferent banks, if u want to scale even further you can even buy banks and so on and so on, and ur bank will never go to waste my following guidelines.

you literally have not tested the first method, you literally havent tested it, you are basing a review on 2-3 days of technical problems my guy.

im accepting 3 or 4x of initial investment and money released.

The title literally says turn 1k into 5/6k which is ridiculously doable. scalable because u can have different account, buy different accounts, there a lot of approaches.

if u spent a month without significant results, i would totally understand.

now a few days brother, even after making 1500€.

By now I think that even the stones have understood that you use mm, but you don't go any further.

"just like other clients bought it too and TESTED it which is key, enlil wolf as well, i already said i have countless mm deals, you can ask jcole, liars from cracked and from patched beastmode bro.. cmon. if you want to fact check what im saying is so easy".

Why do you keep bringing up third parties all the time? Why all this insecurity? I repeat: the numbers speak. Zero contracts and only one credibility point assigned by me.

"You can scale by using your own account a lot of times. I've got proof of using it more than 10 times with different amounts. You can open different banks on your own name. If you want to scale even further, you can even buy banks over and over again, and your bank will never go against my guidelines."

Ah, there you go, you see you're slowly starting to reel off details that were intentionally omitted in the ad post. Now we're talking about buying bank accounts, so you're agreeing with me; the method can only be replicated on a given account a certain number of times.

"You literally haven't tested the first method, you literally haven't tested it, you're basing a review on 2-3 days of technical problems, my guy."

Don't shift focus. I understand the first method; it's simple; it's explained.
I repeat, there are no technical problems. The second method is entirely down to luck, and you just can't admit it.

"I'm accepting 3 or 4x of the initial investment and money released."

Twentieth time (but maybe even more) that you've written this. On the fiftieth time I'll ask some mod to give you a prize.

"this guy is complaining with 0 money lost, 1500€ made with ease, 2-3 days of technical problems which i couldnt help him this week for personal reasons, without first method tested".

Straw man fallacy.

Victim blaming again.

"The title literally says turn 1k into 5/6k which is ridiculously doable. scalable because u can have different accounts, buy different accounts, there a lot of approaches".

Very different than advertised.

"if you spent a month without significant results, I would totally understand.

now a few days brother, even after making 1500€".

Leveraging the fact that I got my money back doesn't change the substance of the matter, which you continue to refuse.

I really find it hard to believe that a person with a wealth of money, with a powerful and widely sold method, is here on a Saturday night wasting time with a single user on a forum.

But everyone is different.

levelttmo - January 31, 2026, 3:19 pm

For facts checks, people can ask jcole, liars (admin from cracked), beastmode (admin from patched), that after a year and a half of selling i have more than 100 successful deals, all with mm and no one ever had problems either with scalability or me refusing to help.

Each method is working perfectly fine.

If anyone is afraid of the scalability of this method, I am okay with money release after quadruple the investment on this guide.

Enlil wolf already gave an honest review after testing everything and reading everything.

No one has ever gotten scammed, this an easy method to implement and with my conditions for mm release theres nothing that could go wrong.

In the two forums mentioned, you appear to have a total of 10 vouches. Not bad, ok, but it's very different from "more than 100 successful deals."

This thread is full of inconsistencies, which become contradictions once you've purchased the method.

Everyone does what they want with their money, but promising the moon is wrong.

I do got more than 100 successfull mm deals. Most of the clients dont vouch directly on site. Plus i dont think i have ever seen any complaint in a year of selling that my thread had incosistencies.

You can ask Liars and beastmode and jcole and combine them, and even Lucas back in the day.

Theres no lies being told on the thread.

I recommend you to try the method first before commenting stuff, not saying you cant do it because of your morals.

And im assuming you dont consider people like enlil wolf, liars

I'm not interested in asking anyone; if anything, anyone intending to purchase this method will ask.

Haven't you ever received a complaint in a year? Look at the fuss you're making just because I shared an experience different from the fairy tale you twist to your liking. I believe no one complains; like a good manipulator, you always twist reality to your liking.

I read a thread on one of the forums you mentioned; it's full of deleted posts. Wow!

And even here, in this serious forum, the first page of this thread alone contains some serious inaccuracies.

I understand you need to sell (even though you shouldn't need to, given what you're saying), but you're not being transparent. And I won't change my mind because I've seen it all too well.

Finally, continuing to drag third parties into trying to turn them against me is yet another cheap psychological game that doesn't work for me.

levelttmo - January 31, 2026, 4:45 pm

Dragging third parties? Im just saying enlil wolf reviewed this how he reviewed and saying theres people you can ask that can confirm what im saying regarding the mm deals i have and im pretty sure for an high ticket method like this, if there were complaints there would be out there specially with the ammount of deals i have.

you sharing an experienced without doing the first method + 2/3 day of problems happening where i could have helped xd and i still dont know where the inconsistencies are on my thread.

bro bought a week ago with mm, made 1500€, had problems for a few days that i could not be active to help, and decided to flame on everything.

and said he would not do the first method because it would go against his morals.

You persistently continue to manipulate even what I'm writing here and now. Like all pathological narcissists, you take us all for fools. But we're not.

I haven't had any problems; I've observed that the second method (which, however, you wrote on Telegram as the main one) is tied exclusively to luck. And this is an indisputable fact that, in fact, since this afternoon, you've been unable to deny. Because you simply can't, because I told the truth. That's how it is, it's a fact, and you can't admit it. Just like the fact that with the second method (still the main one, by your own admission) you didn't help me and couldn't have done so in any way. No one can help if it's just luck.

You continue to bring up other users without addressing the merits of my criticisms, because you know they're completely legitimate. And no, the complaints wouldn't necessarily have surfaced, because as I mentioned earlier, on another competing forum I've seen a ton of deleted posts (and a mafia-like attitude on your part, almost as if you were protected by some mod or admin).

Here the situation is different; here you're with your back to the wall, and in fact your attitude is much more conciliatory.

The contradictions are already present on the first page of the thread; if I highlighted them, I'd have to reveal the method, and I won't. I'm a fair person.

Trying to belittle or humiliate me doesn't change the substance of things. You constantly emphasize that I got my €1,500 back (I was the first to say so), as if, for that alone, I'm not entitled to legitimate and well-founded criticism.

I don't understand why you don't just accept that you were wrong and move on. It happens to everyone; we're all human.

You keep talking about the second method. Do you know enlil? he doesn't even got the 2nd method. 2nd method is very fresh and that's what we been doing on mm deals.

You got problems for 2-3 days, if it was weeks I would understand, again.

Everyone does the first method because it's the OG method and is explicit even on the pastebin, the thread was all built around the first method.

and even the 2nd method is highly repeatable and it's not luck.

"The contradictions are already present on the first page of the thread; if I highlighted them, I'd have to reveal the method, and I won't. I'm a fair person."

then let's deal this with admins, or jcole, if that's the case, you are entitled to a refund, I put the money back on the line if that's the case

You just saying everyone who reviews are liars, you did not try this method, you did not try the first method, you had difficulties for 2-3 days in a week there I was busy and was not able to help, I could literally get u another merchant like the one u got first right now, if u want we can even put the money back in middleman and when u find it it's released again.

I do this everyday, you are malicious and calling me a manipulator everytime I speak facts you can open a dispute if u wanna and if there's anything badly advertised you are entitled to a refund and we can deal directly with admins everything.

I don't want a refund, I don't want money, I just want the truth, and that's what I'm here for.

The second method is pure luck, you know, let's not kid ourselves. I'll keep trying, and if I manage to use it again, I'll write about it and say how lucky I was, okay? Oh, by the way, I've been trying for more than 2-3 days, but you know that too.

You were the one who told me on Telegram that Pastebin is "completely outdated" and that it's not the "main method." You wrote it to me, I didn't make it up. But as pages and pages of this thread demonstrate, you can't maintain a clear line, but you often change your story and contradict yourself. To the point of necessarily having to involve third parties to try to support your arguments.

So this entire thread is based on a method that is "completely outdated," in your words. Okay, I acknowledge that.

You're not a victim here; don't act that way. The facts speak for themselves, and they're written down in black and white.

I won't open a dispute, and the reason is already explained in my review, which you've been unable to accept since yesterday afternoon.

"End of discussion."

Occupato - January 31, 2026, 6:00 pm

Unless I change my mind, this is my final post in this thread.

In the last few hours, I've shown everyone what it's like to deal with a highly skilled manipulator and pathological narcissist. I know these people very well, even in real life.

Even when faced with facts and their contradictions, they will always try in every way to distort reality, to blame the other party, in short, to get their way.

We have before us a user who is selling a high priced method that is actually two methods. But the first is the original method; no, it's completely outdated. And the second is an add-on; no, it's the main one. And it's tied exclusively to luck, but no, it's more convenient to say there were problems. In short, madness.

Pages and pages have been written, even too many posts for my taste, but everyone has eyes to see and brains to reason, and will therefore know how to reason accordingly.

You're absolutely free to spend €1,500; no one will ever stop you. But you know, when you're dealing with shady people, it's normal to be annoyed.

I won't start games, public or private groups, new threads, etc. I'm not like that; I'm an honest, frank, and sincere person. What really left me stunned about this whole affair is that Levelttmo wasn't able to accept a simple review, a dissenting voice, an experience different from what he's obviously used to.

I presented facts, I delved into the merits, but nothing, the other side just repeated the same slogans over and over again.

Inevitably, OP, being a skilled manipulator, will now have the audacity to say that I ran away, that I didn't have the courage to start another thread, etc. etc. I know them too well.

Take all this as a profound sociological/psychological study, guys, because that's what it was. I don't want money, reimbursements, or anything else; I wrote that right away. I just wanted to show that people with certain conditions are like that, and you can't fight them. You can only isolate them, let them speak for themselves. And always pay the utmost attention.

Don't write to me privately about this matter; two people have already done so this evening. I won't write anything to anyone beyond what I've already written here. For me, everything is very clear and explained thoroughly. Everyone, as is logical, does what they think is best in life.

Ah, "GLWS."

well its my own method

requires a bit of social engineering target those gambling websites which has mirror domains to bypass country restriction(usually russian casino which had worked with me in the past)

hint: the balance update glitch after deposit...original and mirror domain of the same website (this is where the social engineering part would come to play) sometimes u have to wager little bit otherwise they wont let u withdraw thats all the hints i can give yall

so in theory if u deposit 100$

you will be able to withdraw 200$ TOTAL

Just dropping a message here, I am redacting the old vouch review from few weeks before as there has been new developments with the seller and the method in itself. And it is only fair that any future 'potential' clients knows the pros & cons associated with this. At this point, I'd like to let everyone know, there are 2 ways to do this 'method'. And how you choose to do it, depends on your country a lot more than what has been let on. So yeah, will be back ?
