You're welcome for my service.

Also, I'll see atleast one of you later tonight after you blow your hand off with fireworks.

That's the point, it doesn't even make sense.

I'm going to hold your hand when I say this, I wasn't alive to fight in the war in 1776.

Rack of ribs sounds delicious. Nothing like a nice BBQ on the Fourth of July.

Thanks for pointing safety out!

My best advice would be: Do Not get drunk and try to launch a mortar firework off of your head. You will DIE!

All money is good money brother. No drinking for me tonight unfortunately. On standby for work. If someone drinks and runs into a telephone then I'll have to go deal with that.. ?
