Thread: 2000 BYTES FLASH CONTEST | 200 Bytes for 10 Winners!

Oh_Well - July 11, 2025, 2:21 pm

Hi all,

I got the hearts in Slots and won a few thousand bytes, so I decided to give back to the community 2000 of them!

I know it's not much but that's all I got so take it or leave it?

How to Enter:

Share below a principal you live by - a rule that must never be broken.

Only one entry per user - duplicate entries will be disqualified.

Prize:

10 Winners will get 200 Bytes each!

Contest ends in 2 days from now - July 13 and the winners will be chosen randomly.

Good luck!

PS: I will quick love all replies - share some wisdom!

thanks for the nice Contest man, if i win, these bytes will go to blackjack!

It isnt really a principal and more a quote, but something i live for. "Never lose hope, no matter how hard life gets—because nothing stays the same forever."

just gives me hope in times of need, and is something i always tell people that need it. ?

At the end of the day, your character is the one thing no one can ever take away from you.

sYndroM - July 12, 2025, 6:34 am

Surround yourself with people that knows your worth.

Always speak the Truth. Or at least don't lie.

Even to yourself. If you lie to yourself. You will stop trusting yourself and that's the worst way to ruin yourself.

Good luck to everyone.

When everything else fades, your character is the one thing that no one can steal from you.

thank you for this

Oh_Well - July 13, 2025, 2:13 am

If fewer than 20 people show up, the 2000 bytes will be split among everyone who entered!

You must share a principle you live by – a rule that must never be broken in order to have a valid entry. You have only a few hours left to make your entry valid!
