How much does these worth approximately?

I have an 11-year-old account. No real friends etc, but i can build a good network in a few months and make it worthy.

Thanks for responding, but my particular approach requires a real FB account, with real friends.

It varies so widely, any figures I give will probably not be useful. Depends on num of friends, social status of owner, how often they post, location, ...

Generic ones that are created and have fake friends are quite cheap ($0.5-$5), but for real profiles it goes up significantly.
