Thread: Reddit Posting, Commenting & Upvotes Service Using High-Karma Aged Accounts

Bourverm - July 20, 2025, 1:39 pm

Want real Reddit traction without risking your own account?

We provide fully human-powered engagement — upvotes, comments, and posts — using trusted, aged accounts with solid karma and activity history.

No bots, automation or scripts.

What you'll get- Post in Targeted Subreddits – Content placed directly in your niche communities for maximum relevance.

Aged, High-Karma Accounts – Posts and comments come from trusted years old accounts with solid Karma.

Manual Actions Only – 100% human-powered, no bots or automation that risk bans.

Genuine Comment Threads – Comments that actually make sense and effectively promote your content. (Unlike bots)

Custom Campaigns – Tailored strategies to meet specific marketing or visibility goals.

Natural Timing Variation – Engagement is spaced out to simulate real Reddit user behavior.

No Shadowbans or Post Removals.

IP & Geo Diversity.

We are currently doing this at my company but not having much success with it. We struggle to ever add links to our posts as they get deleted, and although some of our posts are successful, it's mostly a losing battle and clients churn after a few months.

Some questions:

1. How do you ensure your linked posts stay up?
2. Can you post in subreddits like r/Sales, r/DigitalMarketing, r/SaaS, etc. (all the most important ones for SaaS businesses) without your posts getting deleted?
3. Do you get leads and traffic for your clients' tools and websites?
