Don't post this...now you're definitely on a government watchlist. ??

???

Well, I'll never get those 10 seconds back.

It could be:

1. The Green Goblin.
2. Green goo.
3. A ball of snot.
4. Rsynced having too much fun with AI.

Yes, #4, I am tempted to pay from a subscription at runway AI.

10 sec videos is all I can make with a free account :(

You can also do it at home with ComfyUI and StableDiffusion and similar. The only real problem is to figure out the right prompts (and have a suitable GPU and RAM, of course).

I personally suck with the prompts. lol

Thanx for the rep <3

Thanks for the info! Seriously, I have a Dell Alienware Beast Gaming Laptop, I will try them on my machine when I get a chance. I keep it put up like in some museum since it was $3000+. I do not know why I bought it, I am scared to use it with all my pets and just myself thinking I will spill something or drop it. I can run all new games top quality on it. Need to try this AI out on, I have not considered that. Really thanks for the info... ?

Not the first time, more, like dozens of times, you can never know, might just be a plane, but I swear you never have a camera on you or something goes wrong and you cant record the things, just crazy luck I guess...
