RIP Hulk Hogan

With a heavy heart, I share the news that Hulk Hogan, the legendary WWE icon who helped shape professional wrestling into the global phenomenon it is today, passed away today at the age of 71.

Terry Gene Bollea, better known as Hulk Hogan, was a larger-than-life figure both in and out of the ring. Hogan inspired millions of fans worldwide, from his iconic yellow and red attire to his unforgettable catchphrases.

Fans and wrestlers everywhere are mourning the loss of a true legend. He leaves behind his wife, Sky Daily, and their two children, Brooke and Nick.

Rest in peace, Hulk Hogan. Your impact on wrestling and pop culture will never be forgotten.

RIP to the Hulk!

I grew up watching WWF, which is where Hulk Hogan got his popularity from. Then I found out wrestling was fake, and stopped watching it.. but I still have love for the sport, I just don't watch it. I have certainly watched my fair share of Wrestle Manias.
