Am I missing something?

Factory new is on steam market for $39 and there are hundreds available not with 0.1-2 float if you check them only 2 with that grade, some funny guy dropped a lot of them on market brand new with terrible float as well sadly. Of course "a better compromise" may be available but that is a no compromise deal ?

"only 2 with comparable float" at $40..... but you value yours at $65... also never listed float in original post or any reason why this item has a cash value that is more than 50% higher than steam market value
