Thread: FREE: DarkVision RAT Clipper Extension \(Also works for Razor RAT\).

FREE: DarkVision RAT Clipper Extension (Also works for Razor RAT).

As you may know, the eminent DarkVision RAT now offers an extension feature, enabling users to add custom functionality, which is then mapped within the bot.

Being one of those requesting the extension feature, I've of course already taken advantage of it.

I'm glad to introduce my FREE clipper extension, which currently supports the following cryptocurrency address formats:

BITCOIN, LITECOIN, ETHEREUM.

For those who don't know what a clipper is, it's a method to swap crypto currency addresses pasted to the clipboard with your own address.

This extension will of course be expanded to support additional crypto address formats, but I wanted to share it now since it's already working great.

HOW TO GET:

If you want my clipper extension (v1) and the options file, just contact me any way you can through HackForums. (I can't post any links here).

HOW TO USE:

Click "Custom Extensions" in the DarkVision RAT builder.

Select (navigate to, type, or paste) the path to the binary clipper extension.

Select (navigate to, type, or paste) the path to the options file (This file contains your own crypto addresses for swapping).

That's it — just build the DarkVision bot (or a static mode RAZOR bot) with the extension and options file, and the bot will automatically start clipping any of the currently supported formats. The extension is FREE and SAFE to use.

Thank you, and peace out . ?

Great initiative. I tried to send a message to request a copy of the extension but my account isn't upgraded yet so it failed to deliver.

If you don't mind, I would like to get the clipper extension somehow. Please contact me if you can.

Thank You.

This is awesome!

Your post inspired me, so now I'm working on an extension myself written in C. Won't reveal what it is yet, but I will also share it once it's finished and tested.
