What's Your Partner Cooking?

Thought it could be fun to share what our partners are cooking tonight? Doesn't matter if it's something fancy, a quick snack, or even just takeout they grabbed, it all counts.

If you can, share a pic of the meal too. Always cool to see what everyone's having!

So what's on the menu at your place?

Tonight we ordered Indian food for delivery, and it was delicious. Unfortunately, there are no pictures tonight, but there will be some tomorrow.

Here is the pineapple upside-down cake my wife made yesterday for a friend.

That's some cake? Does it have caramelized fruit like pineapple or cherries in a brown sugar-butter mixture?

My boyfriend lives 4 hours drive away so I dunno? lol But I'm booking plane tickets tomorrow to go see him.
