Thread: Quick Love for Quick Love

Lawrencelll - August 21, 2025, 12:54 pm

Hello everyone, I was seeing some of the other quick love for quick love posts and figured I would do the same so we can help each other get the award. Trying to knock the easy ones out as best as I can.

Mech - August 21, 2025, 1:17 pm

I got you brother, I am at 86% as well and working toward that 100%.

Just sent your OP a Quick Love.. good luck on achieving your award. If you're looking for Award Goals that aren't that difficult to achieve, I would recommend you give the LoungeHead Award a try. We have a motivation thread for users who are working towards getting it, whereas we will post your name in the OP, so other users know you're working on it.. and will therery their best to help you achieve it. You can find that thread: Here.

Good luck with your efforts.
