So you'll be providing the same marketplace to all the people who buy your method, won't it increase the competition for the people who will sell the hosting ?

Normally I don't actually share others the marketplace, you asked so I'll do it. Mostly clients come from FB/Google ads, I will get your BP domain approved with cheapest keywords as written in the thread, if alongside that you need my personal marketplaces then I'll be willing to provide them as well!
