Thread: If the Cheifs win another superbowl

I will personally never watch football ever again.

Last year just before the superbowl it wasn't the Chiefs who won the game against Houston, it was the referees.

Anyone who watched that games knows exactly what I'm talking about. Textbook insanity.

If this trend of the continues again this year I will go as far as adding in keywords to any and everything I touch and look at online to remove anything associated with "NFL" or "American Football"

I mean anything is possible at this point. With Rashee Rice coming back from suspension, worthy being a viable WR, Kalce looking really good in his TE position. The team has a great chance of winning their division and head to the SB. Their backfield is the only thing that's slacking
