Reading a bit about Strategy. I don't know what promises they made but I like that they invest in Bitcoin as compared to random stocks. I wonder if they share the wallet address with the investors.

Interesting read. The term 'Strategy' in terms of bitcoin and crypto gives me the icky feelings when I was watching the charts and news all day.

Huh. "Dismissed with prejudice" because the investors just... withdrew? That seems strange. There has to be more to this story, like maybe a quiet settlement happened behind the scenes.
