Thread: YouTube TV w/ NFL Sunday Ticket

mrRyan94 - September 4, 2025, 7:20 pm

Wondering if anyone is selling access to YouTube TV with NFL Sunday Ticket access? Or is selling a slot on their subscription.

Free streams just aren't doing the trick this year.

Not interested in other IPTV services. I've tried multiple ones and they aren't reliable.

I've never seen anyone selling this. Ever since it switched to YouTube TV it's been a dead market.

Everyone is just doing IPTV now.

Unfortunately every IPTV service I've tried has the same issue, it's fine to watch a channel when it's not popular, but as soon as sunday rolls around and everyone wants to watch football, the streams go to shit.

Are you still looking for this?

If you find this I'd be interested. Have a friend that pays for it and has asked me to use my internet knowledge for discounts for years. Unfortunately the Turkish method only works for normal YouTube.

Yeah I know what you mean. It skipped on me so many times during the Sunday night game I finally installed my old antenna and watched local.
