Thread: Selling my Rotating Proxy Business + Pool - Expired \(€100 Only\)

Squixey - September 9, 2025, 6:32 am

I have full rotating proxy business ready.

Servers just got expired today, you can start selling your IPv6 Proxy with Rotate on Request at Unlimited Bandwidth at 28,000 Threads.

Why am I selling?

I don't want to manage it anymore as it's a side business but makes good profit. I sifted to another work expanding my Bulletproof Business so going into that at the moment.

You can even upgrade the server and make the server bigger as well.

If you want to start your own business, I'll give you my HTML template, my billing panel, and server fully pre setup and the files required to build the pool in different server as well.

Has over 100M IPv6 from over 9 countries.

If interested DM me on TG @XuanXiz or HF.

My sale price : €100

Minimum offer : €75

If needed I'll give all clients mails / telegram in sql format, the billing system I used was Blesta.

Server expired today and has 3 days time to renew.

Monthly maintenance is around €46 only and no more.

Purchased this from Squixey 36 hours ago - Sent him $220 in LTC total for full set-up.

Still waiting to receive credentials and files 2 days later...

Bunch of back and forth on telegram, only answers me once every 24-48 hours saying he's installing stuff on the servers I purchased and sent him info...

Servers expire in 19 days and he still hasn't sent me a single thing.

+ when I check the servers, nothing was installed at all

Guess I lost my 220$ USD

Reporting him today, seems like he was just trying to gain more time.

Kinda expected this to happen by going first of course....

ahhh he deleted his account, well f me I guess -_-
