Chrome - September 10, 2025, 3:12 pm

I think HF should bring back the MAGA award sale in honour of the Charlie Kirk assassination.

Jamika - September 10, 2025, 3:14 pm

You already have it

Edit : sorry i thought that was a fake news
My deepest condolences for his family ?

Insinuating the leader of the free world is going to get killed? That's extremely low quality to post on the board. You should be infracted for saying something so stupid.

OT: Award is NERO custom.

Yeah I know he owns the award but I'm sure he would be able to make a deal with Omni similar to when Trump was elected.

Jamika - September 10, 2025, 4:18 pm

Chrome Omni can invent a reward that carries the symbol K or its name as a whole, for example.

jcole I know that you are gay and like people to insult you, but since I've blocked you, I hope you bite your tongue and stay silent since I wasn't addressing you.

In any case, I will contact the administration regarding your replies.

You edited your comment and seem to try to play stupid. I hope you bite your tongue and stay silent since you threatened the president of the free world.

Threatened him from a reply ? Man get lost

I will sell people MAGA hats, I'll discount it from the usual $250 to $100,

Each will have RIP Charlie Kirk - Voice of Freedom.

You're a beautiful person. Omniscient should jump on and make this HF official.

Reports suggest that his daughter heard the bullet and tried to run to her daddy because the sound frightened her.

As a father of two, this truly breaks my heart.

Extreme leftists can't debate do they kill instead.

Ermm, We couldn't both do it at the same time,

I think at that point the award would have been used by the site too much for it to be my own custom award.

I do think Omni hosting the award sale would get more sold and you could both benefit. Either way,

I will be in contact at some stage to purchase.

Edit each time that omni runs the sale he does mention you as the award owner and cuts you in.

Stupid suggestion.

Make a custom award for this either paid or convince Omniscient to add one to be bought.

Either way, why conflate the two.

Those multi gender animals lost they last hope with this shot, all of them will be in jail soon !

Proof - September 12, 2025, 6:06 am

I nominate Motusora to make a TPUSA award

The amount of erosion to the fabric of society that they have caused is astounding.

They need to take that shit elsewhere.

But lets not hi-jack this thread

Makes more sense for Omni to make it an award for people to buy at a more reasonable price.

If he re-uses MAGA he has to factor cutting you in/your price.

If he does a custom/external from yours-- liability is gone.

More will buy that way imo.

Grants for your award is something separate. That's something you should always be able to get.

I was referring to the usage of it for Kirk for members on the site who wanted to purchase an award in memory / pay respect to Kirk.

You'd (Omni/HF) have more buyers if it was under buyawards.php and reasonably priced.

MAGA, when I look at it, I think of Trump-- no need to conflate the two imo.

Off topic.. hope you're doing well brother

I'd love for the hat to be split potentially, So same avatar, 2 awards, Be easier to track grants etc too! But yeah once my grants are up im happy for omni to use the maga hat for whatever he wants going forward

I dislike how awards can spark political discussions. As someone who isn't American and doesn't care about politics, I don't want to see such awards.

Stop acting like a whore who wants to rub against the members to satisfy her... you are a clown, and I have stopped dealing with clown fagg.ots like you.

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=776749> made a nice Charlie Kirk initials one already, seems like a solid award to grab.

Omni would you add to buyawards?

Omniscient - September 12, 2025, 11:20 am

Sorry but I'm not going to be doing this.

I'm trying to make HF more apolitical, even considering deleting SRPP totally. May even ban political ideology in profiles again (had that for years).

What I believe personally politically shouldn't be part of HF unless that political situation effects HF in a more direct way. Example would be KYC, Age Verification, or Online Privacy Laws.

Let's go back to being a Hacking Forum about technology.
