Thread: Back into Minecraft... factions

SpiritualDose - September 11, 2025, 11:17 am

Title says it all. I was a faction addict when iw as like 16.. now I'm back on it playing again and found a server called Complex MC. I love it, its definitely addicting and fun to build up a valuable faction.

Any others play MC, specifically factions on here? if so what server?

I never stuck around playing Minecraft long enough to get to experience all of the crazy modes, mods, etc that came about from it. I still had a great time with the core game up to whatever point I played it though. Lots of good memories chilling on there and building crazy shit.
