This should either go to the Online Accounts section or premium sellers.

I would like to give some brief feedback on the service, which I unfortunately cannot recommend. On October 1, I signed up for a one-month trial of Netflix. The chaos began when I didn't receive a response all day long. (I understand the privacy issue, but could it be that they were just stringing me along?)

It took a whole day before I received my login details. When I tried to log in, the next problem arose: which slot and which PIN? So I wrote to the seller again and finally got a response. But that wasn't all. The next problem promptly arose: I couldn't use the account because a new payment method was required to continue using Netflix. I contacted the seller again and didn't receive the new payment details until the evening. I logged in and found that all slots were already taken. So I wrote to him again and asked if the accounts were even checked before they were sold. His answer: “He can log in!” Phew, I took a deep breath and asked him, “Then why are all the slots taken?” To this day, I have not received an answer and my coins have not been refunded either.

Finally, I got a solution to my problem and he sent me the PIN. I then asked him to respond immediately and resolve the matter quickly. But I still haven't received a reply.

Conclusion: Never again!
