Do you have any vouches on HF?

Key - September 18, 2025, 11:13 am

This sounds very interesting, does it work with business class, premium class etc?

Hey! Yes. We book economy, business, first class (or their equivalent).

Hey. We are new to HF, but have been in the travel industry for 10+ years. We have many vouches on our Telegram channel (with proof in the actual video & watermarks).

Telegram deleted our old channel some months back, CLICK HERE to access the new one. We post new vouches daily, and accept escrow!

Beardonss - September 18, 2025, 1:02 pm

Can anyone vouch for this?

Use a middleman or escrow. No, no one can vouch for this, as this is a new post from a new user.

Can you show past booking vouchers for hotels and past airline tickets

I work in entertainment logistics... this sounds very sketchy. To me, they are paying with stolen CC info. I wouldn't risk booking a flight like this and having police waiting for you on arrival

I understand your concern. There are unfortunately many shady services out there. To clarify, we do not use stolen cards or engage in anything illegal. All of our bookings are made using secure, legal methods that we've developed over years in the industry.

We've been in the travel business for 7+ years (5+ on Telegram) and have served thousands of customers worldwide. None of our clients have ever faced issues with check-in, ticketing, or law enforcement - because we make safety and legitimacy our top priority.

That's why we emphasize transparency, escrow protection, and 24/7 support. The trust we've built with long-term resellers and repeat clients is proof that our system is safe, secure, and reliable.

Hi, all of our photo and video vouches are uploaded directly to our channel on Telegram! You can click here to go directly to the channel if you have Telegram installed on your mobile device / PC.

Would you like for us to upload some photo or video vouches here for easier access?

Most definitely agree with this when dealing with any new seller. We are more than happy to use any official HF middleman, or @CoinXpertBot on Telegram!

Absolutely, feel free to contact us via Telegram or HF if you have any questions!

Avalanche - September 21, 2025, 12:36 pm

Imk if anyone tests this out. I'm interested in booking an international flight, but don't wanna risk it without anyone on HF testing it out.

I will consider using this service in the future. Is there any risk like the flight/hotel getting canceled?

katrinadz - January 18, 2026, 9:43 pm

I would be waiting for a vouch to use this service, looks interesting!

Ingenuity - January 19, 2026, 10:17 am

I used this a few times last year, and it worked fine. However for my latest transatlantic they're saying they're not able to make the booking and haven't even offered a refund - just credit for my next booking if they ever open their doors again.

BlackRock - January 19, 2026, 11:00 am

Looks interesting for sure. I understand people are worried about the possibility of stolen info, stolen airline miles etc.

They're almost certainly social engineering support and are likely earning a full refund, hence them wanting to pay for you.

That would be my concern as well. It seems rather likely but perhaps OP can explain more.

There is SCAM notice for this user at another forum:

I wouldn't recommend dealing with him. Super shady. First time he booked for me without any issues and in advance.

This time he asked for payment in advance, and voila ran away with $300 for a hotel booking. What a freaking bum.

Does not give you any confirmation page or anything btw, would stay away. My contract with him wasn't active so I cannot dispute this but hopefully I can save someone reading this post.
