Thread: The Only 12 Members That Can Achieve Their 5th Octoberfest Pumpkin!

DemonAsylum - October 1, 2025, 4:58 pm

So at the end of Octoberfest last year I made a thread listing the members that had a chance to continue their flawless Octoberfest pumpkin award streak and also then listing the members that actually did just that. We went into the event with 19 members who were 3/3 on pumpkin awards and we ended the event with only 13 of them achieving their 4th. Since then, one of those members has been purged and so now we're down to just 12. I'll list those members below.

account
Aeowulf
Bastille
Cooligan
Deany
Eran
Jinu
LeetSpeed
oRequiem
Michael
Yanix
Yin Yang

First and foremost, congrats to these members on managing to get the Octoberfest pumpkin award for the last 4 years. However, it seems that we will surely see this list get even smaller after this year's event given a couple of these members haven't been online in quite some time. Additionally, I of course can't say for certain whether all of the remaining members that have been active more recently will earn or buy the award this time around. Hopefully this thread makes them aware that they are among the few who can keep such a streak alive though and that they do just that. Best of luck to them all!

Deany - October 1, 2025, 5:11 pm

Oh hey I see my name on that list

Envy - October 1, 2025, 5:21 pm

It'd be more "prestigious" if they weren't just the same award simply recolored.

Some of the recolors don't even match the other pumpkin awards, lol.

Indeed. That means you better not let your fellow 11 members down by losing the streak. It seems a couple of them are very likely to not get it so the more of you remaining that can hold onto it the better lol.

Me too. I've not been very active lately, and I am just so tired from work all day. ? I am still undecided if I am doing this or not. Figured I should make a few to start... just in case, and save me a headache later.

An intriguing way of thinking and one that actually isn't entirely crazy.. However, wouldn't you prefer to be a PART of that exclusive list of people? It will surely be narrowing down anyway.

I'd be willing to bet that even with everyone on this list that's posted in here so far getting the award and couple of others, the list still ends up going into single digits. A couple of them like Cooligan just seem cemented to not get it obviously. Then there are a couple of others which seem fair to assume may very well not bother either.

Two days ago I was dead set on not doing it. I saw he lowered the requirement to 500 and was... I decided to at least start. I don't know if I'll see it through, but I don't want to sabotage myself later by not doing ANYTHING today. ?

Nah it's good you started today. This is 100% one of those things or for some people anyway that if you don't start in the first couple of days, maybe even literally the first day, it will snowball and get away from you like it's nothing. Then the more it goes on, the more you don't care, etc.

Every year I have doubted getting it the whole way. I know I CAN. We shall see how long I keep it up to see if I WILL.

I've been tired lately from work. I just need a good solid weekend of rest and the mindset to do it and I'll burn through my keyboard.

I had that kind of doubt the first pumpkin I started to go for in 2022 I believe it was and it ended up just taking over. I threw in the towel real quick lol. 2023 I got it more towards the middle or maybe back end of the month. Then last year I just slammed it out ASAP. I guess not unlike what I'm doing for the moment at least lol.

I definitely regret not sticking with it or even really giving it much of a chance in 2022. As for 2021, I'm not sure how much I was around or how much I cared, but again I regret not having gone for it. Maybe one day Omni will offer a way to get old pumpkins for those that don't have them since he's now starting to just offer the new ones for sale anyway. Or maybe he'd prefer to keep those significant to the year and in turn rarer in a sense.

Snapshots in time sort of thing. It makes any individual award you earn mean something more I think.

That's fair. It would be selfish and bias for me to try and make a case for them to be made available again. I know that if I had them all and via earning them no less, I too wouldn't want them to just be made available down the line for anyone to buy or maybe even earn during an event like this.

Yes! And then your list would grow instead of shrink every year. ? Now, for the sake of the list, it cannot happen.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

If you mean due to being the one that created the thread, not anymore. Omni changed it not too long ago I believe it was and to where the OP doesn't get bytes per reply. So my only way of getting bytes from this thread is via my replies and while getting the same amount as I would replying on any other thread.

I missed out on the first couple of years unfortunately, but I'm glad to see there are a handful of members that have been doing it since the first year and participating again this time around as well. Seems the list of those with every pumpkin will once again be getting a bit shorter this year however. I'll be curious to see just how many of the 12 remain come the end of this event.

Unfortunately not. Buying a pumpkin or in your case getting gifted a pumpkin makes it so your award progress goes to 100% as you already noticed. After that point you aren't able to get a second one in any way. I did indeed encounter that at first when I immediately purchased one and without realizing that would be the case. Given that I wanted to go for two of them, I had Omni take it back and keep the donation of course. From there I both earned and then purchased a pumpkin (again) so I could get two.

Ow, thanks for the info, still happy to have it, I'll not be forced to LQ post to get 30 threads because I started a little bit late ^^

Seems the list of those with every pumpkin will once again be getting a bit shorter this year however. I'll be curious to see just how many of the 12 remain come the end of this event.

Seems clear the list of members with them all will be getting shorter after this year's event, but I'm hoping to see as many keep it going as possible.

hoping soo too sir !

I'm getting there! The OG pumpkin was my first award on HF and I'm continuing the tradition! ?
