Thread: What Kind Of Gambling Do You Find Most Enjoyable?

DemonAsylum - October 1, 2025, 2:41 pm

There are lots of different kinds of gambling available to us all such as card/house games, slots, sports betting, etc. Not to mention you also have the ability to do a lot of these either in person or from the comfort of your home. So out of all of the ways you can gamble, which do you find to be most enjoyable and why?

For myself, I've gone through phases of different forms of gambling being my favorite. Sports betting, esports betting, blackjack and roulette, and then in recent years, slots (mainly online).

I've played a good amount of BJ online/IRL, but not here on HF with bytes. I've been gambling more than usual in the past few months, but I wouldn't say I actively gamble atm. That's good of course though lol.

Sports/esports betting was the main thing I did when I first started gambling though and I stuck with that for quite a long time since it wasn't completely fucking me lol.

Ahh that makes more sense as to the consistent smaller deals you come to me with. Outside of that you're just on the struggle with bets atm I guess? Gonna need you to have a fat run up one of these days.

You normally have more luck with the former? You had a good couple of weeks a while back. You came to me a few times in a row with quite a lot and to the point that I was wondering what the fuck you were doing LOL.

Didn't you used to bet on MLB though? Could have sworn we've talked about it in the past.

Football (my home team specially) and NBA if I can actually watch games.

Most success ? my home team obviously, sport is always the same thing if you know something at 100%, you can make few bucks

I haven't done any sports betting in a long time, but when I did it was pretty hit or miss. I don't think I ever ran it up too much from such.

Mathematically you actually can't though except if you have an edge but having an edge on worldwide leagues is living in a fairy tale or being in inner circles

Snowwy - October 2, 2025, 9:10 am

I like sports betting most of the time.

Plague - October 2, 2025, 10:37 am

I started with slots a while back and that was my main thing. Now, I cannot get enough of roulette. Which may not be the best thing ?

JoshAllen - October 3, 2025, 1:18 pm

Sports easily. It feels like you can actually put reasonable input into it.

Most casino games are pure luck.

Charlie Sheen - October 22, 2025, 6:26 pm

I like to bet on sports. I have to bet on an underdog or a very difficult parlay.

Few months back I was really enjoying black jack as I was hitting quite a lot of top3 bets which were coming in at around 180 to 1 which was a good £5 to £10 per time and I must admit the bet would come in sometimes after around 3 hands which is crazy. I have now moved to slots again as I have found a few new fun ones recently.
