Thread: What's The Most Bytes You've Won While Gambling Here On HF?

DemonAsylum - October 1, 2025, 2:28 pm

Here on HF you can gamble in a few different ways such as via slots, blackjack, sportsbook, scratch cards, and flipping in convo. I know many of us have dabbled with some of these before and so while doing so, what was your biggest win? Or rather if it was more of a session you were continuing to run it up from, how many bytes did you end up with afterwards? I'm not much of a gambler with bytes on here so I don't really have any big wins to boast unfortunately lol.

HerrWinston - October 1, 2025, 2:29 pm

"no big wins to boast" maybe not but you always steal jackpot! ;/

My biggest winstreak led up to 280k, was gambling until 5AM the next day, went to sleep with 120k and woke up 2 hours later, instantly running to my pc to gamble again going up to the 280k, at that point didnt even know what i was doing or typing, my brain was in flow state lmao, about an hour later i sadly lost it all tho ;(

LOL, I have definitely sniped a handful of jackpots. I do tend to share the wealth after such though! I just find enjoyment in playing the little jackpot game for some reason lol. Meanwhile I have no interest in flipping for instance though.

As for your run up, 280k is obviously damn impressive. Sucks you lost it of course, but the fact that you even got up that high is quite a feat.

you say little game, after "/jackpot play 100" and instantly winning lmao, but yeah you do share most of it (thx).

The 280k is something i dream of to this day, wish i wouldve stopped and just sold it off lol since then i am officially flipping addicted running up to 80k recently but losing it all in an instant aswell

Seinfeld - October 1, 2025, 2:56 pm

Had a crazy run up to like 460k bytes, and lost it all about 5 minutes after the peak.

Was a hell of a ride ?

Was I there for that? I feel like I don't recall this. I've seen a lot of run ups from a handful of members though so maybe I'm trippin.

Pretty sure it was the same day omni raised the flip limit to 50k

I do recall that day, but maybe I wasn't around when you were actually doing it. Just means you're going to have to put on a show for me now.

I read this thread about 30 minutes ago, but I couldn't really reply to it, as I am fairly new to the forum and haven't won anything yet.

Then I gave slots a try.

Just won 1250 bytes on slots, with a 5 byte gamble - > <https://imgur.com/a/4l2XVx0>

No shit, congrats! Speaking of slots btw and because I know we were talking about awards before. You can potentially get the Dicey award while spinning slots or playing blackjack. So if you continue to do either, good luck with your chances of getting that!

Thanks!

Now I will definitely keep playing slots & blackjack, I want that award, haha.

Thanks for making me aware man

No problem and in case you were wondering about a bet limit for it, you can do whatever amount. I and I imagine most people just kept spinning 1 bytes on slots until we got it.

That's nice! So the bet amount doesn't increase the chance of winning, right?

That is correct. Whether you're betting 1 byte or 1000 bytes, there should be no difference in regards to how likely you are to get the award. It's just purely random.

Well, thanks, I've now spun it about 50+ times and counting.

Now, this will be a hobby until I receive that award, haha

Update: Just won another 250 bytes on 1 byte.

Hahahaha, another 250 spins.

I just hope you don't go insanely dry like some members have. There are to this day I believe still some members well into the 5 digits that haven't gotten it. I lucked out pretty well getting it at a little over 1k spins.

5 digits and still not getting it, is insane haha

I won the "jackpot" twice now, I hope I keep that luck up then.

If any bit of that luck can somehow convert to your chances of getting the award, you'll have it in no time haha.

I assume you've already considered this and maybe just think it isn't allowed, but you could always use an autoclicker.

I was thinking of that 10 minutes ago, and I didn't dare to post it here, as I wasn't sure it was allowed.

Just found out it simply becomes too boring doing 1 byte at a time myself, my balance is drastically down now, because I simply get bored and start gambling bigger amounts haha

Yeah it sounds like you might just need to throw on an autoclicker with 1 byte bets and walk away for a bit ?

What percentage do you have on the October award now?

I'm at 13%

Hahaha - Indeed we do my friend.

Pleasure is mine!

Bad red streak going on got to break out

onlineuser | D3RFER - October 1, 2025, 5:31 pm

1 episode of blacklist later.

53 minutes of 1-byte bets on slots, still no award.

Grind must continue.

DAL-SHA - October 2, 2025, 11:04 pm

100 bytes , i /flipped 50 in the chat room xD that was like 10 days ago ??

6 - October 2, 2025, 11:48 pm

I once won 5M flipping and on sports book in a single day but if we talk about net than i would have lost close to > 20M

JoshAllen - October 4, 2025, 6:26 pm

I lost 1.5k on a single bet. And won $750 on a single bet.

Gambling is not for me.

Michael - October 18, 2025, 3:13 am

I think a couple 1250 on blackjack, or a 5k flip.

Not really a gambler.

sikis313131 - October 18, 2025, 3:40 am

I won a little over €150,000, but I didn't know when to stop, so I ended up walking away with €90,000.

Eran - October 20, 2025, 7:42 am

Proly when I made about 125k from flipping from a 100 byte or so donation.

Mix - October 21, 2025, 9:38 pm

Think I had a hit many years back where I won 5k bytes from a decent spin. These days I am being a bit smarter with my bets.

Yin Yang - October 21, 2025, 10:00 pm

I'll have to check and let you know

Charlie Sheen - October 22, 2025, 6:24 pm

20k bytes on Alexa Grasso. Won 140k.
