? Pokémon Collectors – Show Off Your Best Cards! ?

Hey trainers! ?

I was wondering... do any of you here collect Pokémon cards?

If so, let's make this thread fun — I've got a couple of questions for you:

1. Do you still collect Pokémon cards actively, or is it more nostalgic for you? ?
2. What's the best RAW card you own right now? (Un-graded, straight from pack or trade)
3. Do you own any PSA-graded cards? If yes, what's your highest PSA 10 card? ?

I'll start — my favorite raw card is Captain Pikachu, Horizons Full Art, but I'm still hunting for a solid PSA 10!

Your turn ?

Sick bud!

Don't you regret getting rid of them?

Yeah, then the ONE RING came out, and my card was no longer one of the most valuable.

This is all I have. I have some unopened promotional packs somewhere. I think I might get a classic Mewtwo next. Maybe a Dragonite also. I'm not really into collecting Pokemon cards. Just got the Charizard because I always wanted one as a kid.

I've thought about it. I don't think it will grade highly. If I knew it would come back a 9 or 10 I would.

OMG. Reminds me of my good old days.

That's a neat collection man. I'm glad you still have it.

I never actually had pokemon cards, but I always found it fascinating.

Depending on the back, that zard is most likely a PSA 6 contender, maybe a 7.

If the holo isn't too scratched up, definitely a without a doubt a 7. The card is very clean.

If the holo is solid, and the back is somewhat solid, you might even be looking at an 8. If the back is as solid as the front, perhaps even a 9, depending on the Holo tho.

Send some better pics raw without protection, front and back, and can give you an experienced judgement.

And even a PSA 6 would be worth the grading in terms of value. I believe about $500+ bucks. But most importantly, the card is properly protected then, against UV as well. And properly displayed.
