So the title speaks for itself.

What's the best thing that's happened to you recently?

I've secured a new contact within the IT industry at one of the largest gaming companies in my country. I am now officially invited to join the owners for a trip to Sweden's Dreamhack event in Stockholm, taking place from November 28th to 30th.

It's going to be a long trip over there, but networking in the IT industry is very important to me.

I left my job, I don't know if it's the best thing or the scariest thing. I know I'll find a way to get by, but I'm excited to start my next chapter whatever it may be.

Well hopefully you find the opportunity you want and achieve what you want to achieve :) Leaving a Job can be a tough decision but I am sure you will find what you seek soon.

Just did the exact same thing a couple of months ago.

New chapters are always exciting. I'm sure it will work out exactly as you want.

May I ask why you left your job?
