Thread: Thoughts on Black Ops 7 Beta?

What are your thoughts on the Black Ops 7 Beta so far?

For me, Dravec seems to already be meta, and the SBMM is completely brutal for me.

only an hour in so far and it seems like watching it is a lot more fun than playing it. I just keep randomly running into demons who hold corners like animals

Yeah man, it's rough with the SBMM and netcode being this bad.

I can agree the SBMM is shit, but im honestly having fun. The audio of the guns I've been using sound like they hit much harder

What's your go to load out currently?

Dravec is the current meta. I haven't really messed with my loadout since I'm just getting to level 20 so I can relax until they add the extra 10 levels (assuming they do).

I was gonna say the Dravec 45 seems hella op, I been using that.

They'll release at least 7 more levels, there's a title you get from getting level 27 in the beta.

Then it's definitely going to be level 30 since it would be weird to cap at 27. And yeah, Dravec is probably best gun in the game right now.

Yeah, you gotta really tune your settings. For some reason, they keep adding trigger deadzone when it should be off.
