Did you guys hear that Saudi Arabia purchased EA for $55B?
What are your thoughts on this?

Really thought you were joking at first.
I had to double-check; that's crazy.

I barely liked EA as it was. Now... I do not want to buy another EA product. Ever.

Yeah, EA was already in the shitter. We need to get the karens out of the industry, forcing their ideologies on us. So this might be a good thing.

That could be the only saving grace, but overall I despise them more than I despise the "woke" crowd. Even though the woke crowd is blind to the issues I hate SA for... They're all fkn stupid. ?

Idk man, the woke crowd completely nuked games that could have been so good. I'm so tired of getting shit pushed in my face when I want to play video games. People play video games to escape reality, not think about it

This is true. I've also just been avoiding those games already, so haven't been affected by it. Too busy working to play.

Even the voice actor for Ghost of Yotei is an antifa member ?

Well SIMS is owned by EA so they own it after obtaining EA.
