been listening to a lot of music i listened to in my childhood sum 41 and green day were the 2 artists i listened to the most. I really think most mainstream music now is trash and just doesnt hit the same

I would not say I'm a fan. Didn't know who they were before this song. Still no little to nothing about them. I just really like the song.

I really love Oliver Tree and especially this version.

Haven't heard anything new from him in a bit.

This has been my most listened to song for the entire year and stays there until I get to see them live.
