Thread: If you can ban one everyday object from existence, what would it be?

Fish - October 3, 2025, 3:58 am

I would ban a pencil. Those things are useless and a waste of time

P??sonl?af - October 3, 2025, 4:00 am

I think I would ban cellphones. Just because I'd like to see the world burn! xD

Oh man, if you banned cellphones, the whole world would lose their shit. Literally everything would fall apart

The Pact - October 3, 2025, 4:44 am

I was going to say nail polish. But then I thought of cigarettes.

Deany - October 3, 2025, 8:59 am

Real. Pencil you can kill someone with. Not innocent yellow things!

sharn - October 3, 2025, 10:16 am

TV ads. A waste of time for everyone.

JoshAllen - October 3, 2025, 10:26 am

Full video ads. I way rather watch ads that appear at the side of the screen or below, but I hate watching a 2 minute add before a 10 minute show.

Let's take this paranoia a step further and get rid of the internet. I suspect that none of us can even imagine such a revolt ?

To be honest that's why I toke cellphones! So I would atleast be safe!

I wonder if teenagers can work with a PC these days since they do everthing on their phone.

Nate - October 3, 2025, 12:40 pm

Lol why pencils tho, they're important. I like to erase things!

Jamika - October 3, 2025, 3:55 pm

Can i ban schools ? I hate wake up early to drive my kids to school

I hate how early schools start.

Even in the real world, most jobs start at 9. Why the hell was I in a classroom before 8.

Imagine. Companies just couldn't advertise. Everything word of mouth.

plops - October 3, 2025, 5:27 pm

I would ban dogs in stores. Leave your god damn animal at home

oRequiem - October 3, 2025, 6:52 pm

I would agree, honestly.
Back in school, I always used pens (when I was allowed)

I think they still know how to use it, but the question is, do they use it properly? Besides, let's be honest—installing Steam or Discord is not the same as knowing how to use a computer ??

Pimping - October 3, 2025, 11:37 pm

Might have to go with you on pencils
I hate pencils and i cant even remember last time i used 1. even in school i used to write with pen most of the time since it just felt nicer and faster

I don't think that will happen, after all, it's hard to brag about VM among your friends XDDD

They would wait in line for the new Iphone 24 VM. Even if it's just a virtual waiting line. xD Vouch this. There was a blackout in Madrid earlier this year which resulted in everyone re-connecting through music, singing, playing and pure socializing.

The videos online are quite wholesome.

Oh yes! 10x yes! Fucking ads are terrible. Def. since a lot of them either lie or bend the truth a little. Word of mouth would be much better and more believable!

Exactly what this world is missing! Tampons that store your data in the cloud and uses it for better Tampon advertisements!

To be honest I agree with this lol. I've been without a phone for a little over a week now and it's.. inconvenient to say the least lol.. but I know I'm doing myself a favor, doomscrolling was becoming a problem.

Like everything it's a good tool when it comes into moderation. The problem with human nature is that we rely on these tools way too often that they really become a huge problem.

Yeah moderation aint my thing recently.. in anything really. But I agree with you. Discipline is the answer.

I think we all become victim of taking things into the extreme. I always say that everyone has it's vices. When it's either smoking or drinking or shopping. We all have a thing that we are addicted to even if we don't see it.

Pretty much. The goal for the elites is for us to act like this. Fact.
