Curious to see how members high school experience was, and if they decided to continue schooling and venture off into college or not

Fine, I was absent for most of it showed up for finals, and midterms. I played pro e-sports so wasn't really anything I needed to worry about.

Rough. I had better things to do, or at least my teenage self though so

Pretty good actually. I was the happiest in my last high school years tbh. Everything since then has been slowly going downhill lmao

Junior year was awesome but senior year things started to fell apart.

It was a mix of stress and laughter.

Nothing special, just routine.
