Thread: Which awards are discontinued?

FrostMost - October 3, 2025, 12:02 pm

I have heard about some awards like Everyday Ninja Award but cant see them on the site. Are they discontinued?

I think there is a sort of rotation in place for what awards are up for purchase.

Ngl I saw that award on some guy's profile and it had an easy task to do to get it. But seems like it is discontinued lol?

The one that's the most unobtainable will probably be qwazz star as its a user award, and that user hasn't been on in years

Just viewed his profile and seems like he came to check smth in 2024 lol. Did he state why he is not active?

Check award page many are already no more available now

Any award that isnt on either the <https://hackforums.net/awardgoals.php> or <https://hackforums.net/buyawards.php> is pretty much discontinued. Their are ways to get them but I must admit that comes with a heavy price tag and good reason 99% of the time.

a lot of the awards are gifted or bought , very very few are earned .. and some ofc are discontinued !

Chrome - October 19, 2025, 4:29 am

No awards are discontinued. Pay enough and omni will likely sell any (excluding user owned awards).

Eran - October 19, 2025, 4:32 am

The Ninja one and a bunch of others on the list, but for money I'm sure you can get any one you want.

Chorozon - October 21, 2025, 8:15 am

All i have ever wanted is the XMR award

Not sure about all of them, but a few legacy awards aren't around anymore.

Michael - October 21, 2025, 11:02 am

Normally it should say it on the award page.

Yes. It's not going to be award again. Same as Judge Dread's hammer award.

Palestine - October 21, 2025, 7:00 pm

If you 'donate' enough I'm sure Omni would be more than willing to hook you up with certain awards aslong as they're not only exclusively available to certain users.
