Thread: Design your \(hacker\) alias like a video game skill tree.

Let's say you can give yourself a talent tree. You get 20 points with a maximum of 10 skills. 3 points in a skill is expert, 2 is decent and 1 is alright.

What video game style talents would you give yourself.

For example. I'm a Poisonleaf so

Regrowth (3): Healing damage taken over-time.

Poisonous (3): Dealing poison damage over-time.

Toxic Presence (1): Username alone lowers enemy morale by 5%.

Camouflage (3): Can blend into any forum topic without detection.

Spore Storm (3): Release a barrage of sarcastic comments that overwhelm opponents.

Hallucinogenic Aura (2): Others misinterpret your posts in ways that benefit you.

Dreamweaver (2): Plant ideas into other users' "unconscious posting" patterns.

Am i forced to use those only ? If yes then

No no no not at all, those are Poisonleaf related. You should create something Jamika theme'd. Ghost theme'd as we have learned!

Hehe nice then

Phantom Step (2): Move between topics without anyone noticing you.

Haunting Echo (2): Old posts come back and confuse other users.

Spectral Veil (3): A ghostly shield hides what you really mean.

Wraith's Whisper (2): Your words sound strange and change how people think.
Poltergeist Surge (2): You cause sudden chaos that breaks the flow of a talk.
Ectoplasmic Chill (3): Just being there makes others type slower by 5%.
Soul Drift (3): You slip into another person's mind and guide their replies.
